

The Revolution Of Beelzebub

By

DEDICATION

I dedicate this book to the human beings with will of steel, to the great rebels, to the high flying eagles, to those who never humble themselves before the whip of any tyrant, to the supermen of humanity, and also to the great repented sinners, since from them a new race of gods will be the outcome.

In order to reach the High Initiation one does not need to be an erudite. Instead, what one needs to be is perfect, as our Father who is in heaven is perfect.

One does not reach the High Initiation with the intellect, but with the heart. Consequently, there are true Masters of the White Fraternity who do not know how to read, nor to write. Nevertheless, they are great illuminated sages.

The intellect never attains the Initiation. Only the heart attains the Golgotha of the High Initiation. The majority of people have their heads filled with absurd theories and ancestral prejudices; they do not open their minds to anything new.

Justice is the supreme piety and the supreme impiety of the law.

The Gods judged the Great Whore (humanity) and they considered her unworthy, thus, the sentence of the Gods is:

To the abyss!

To the abyss!

To the abyss!

Human beings of the Aquarian age! Beings of the XXI century! Beings of the XXX century remain firm within the light; remember that the human beings of the XX century were barbarians, and that all of them were punished because of their evilness. Let this serve as an example, so that you will remain firm within the faith of Christ.

Beings of Aquarius! Exert yourselves on your path towards the light. Redeem and fuse yourselves with your Intimate, before the evil ones of this XX century leave the abyss. A new sign of darkness is approaching (Capricorn). Therefore, it is the time for you to be alert and vigilant, because the Earth will again be invaded by the Demon-Souls of this Dark Age, who I, Aun Weor bound into the abyss in order for you to have the happiness that you are now enjoying.

Beings of Aquarius! I especially dedicate to you this book that the barbarians of the XX century did not understand. People from this XX century heard the word of Jehovah: "Thus saith Jehovah of hosts; even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and they shall bury them in Tophet (the killing valley), till there be no place to bury." (Jeremiah 19: 11).

CHAPTER 1

THE REVOLUTION OF BEELZEBUB

Sing unto the majesty of fire, oh Goddess of wisdom.

Let us raise our cups and let us toast to the hierarchies of the flames...

Let us ignite our amphoras of gold and let us drink the wine of light until becoming inebriated...

Oh Demosthenes, how fast were your feet in Cheronea...

Mesmer, Cagliostro, Agrippa, Raymond Lully, I knew all of you, I saw all of you, and they called you madmen.

From where did you get your wisdom? Why were your lips sealed with death? What did happen to your knowledge?

On this night, I will drink the wine of wisdom within the chalice of your august craniums and in a gesture of omnipotent rebellion, I will revolt against the ancient tomb.

I will break all the chains of the world, and I will declare myself immortal even if they believe me to be crazy...

I will grasp the sword of Damocles, so as to make the inopportune guest to flee....

Thus mute skull, you will not succeed against me, since I am eternal...

Igneous Christ, blazing Christ, I raise my cup and make a toast to the Gods, but you baptize me with fire...

From where did this manifold creation spring from?

From where did these immense planetary boulders spring from that seem to emerge as millenarian monsters from the jaws of an abyss, in order to fall into yet another abyss more terrible and dreadful than the first?

I lift my eyes up high, and upon the igneous head of the most exalted among all the sacrificed ones, I read this word: I.N.R.I.

Ignis Natura Renovatur Integra. (The fire renews nature incessantly).

Yes, beloved disciples, the entire universe is nothing else but the granulations of the Fohat (fire).

Oh, the hierarchies of the fires! Oh, the hierarchies of the flames.

Ardent, ardent roses,.. igneous serpents. ..hiss. . .hiss eternally upon the waters of life, in order for the worlds to emerge...

Hiss, hiss, hiss eternally, with the hiss of the Fohat, oh holy flames...

Blessed be the luminous fiat, the spermatic fiat of the eternal living God, who placed this universe into existence.

Divine fire, you are the divine numen of all infinite existences, and when the subterranean flame shall burst its prison and devour the framework.. .burning the foundations of the world, you shall still be as you were before, without suffering any change. Oh, divine and eternal fire!...

The Fohat fecundates the chaotic matter, thus, the worlds emerge into existence. All of what has been, what is, and what will be, is a child of fire...

The fire of the Holy Spirit is the flame of Horeb... The Fohat lives within our testicles (ovaries) and it is only a matter of putting it into activity, by means of Sexual Magic, that will convert ourselves into Gods... into Devas, into divine and ineffable beings.

The fire of chastity is the fire of the Holy Spirit, it is the fire of Pentecost, it is the fire of Kundalini... It is the fire, which Prometheus plundered from heaven... It is the sacred flame of the temple, ignited by the vestals... It is the flame of triple incandescence... It is the chariot of fire on which Elijah went up into heaven.

In the time of ancient Egypt, the neophyte who aspired to become an alchemist had to wed a mature woman in order to awaken the divine fire. But, if he married a young maiden he had to wait some months before executing the sexual connection. Obedience to his wife was one of the matrimonial requirements, to which the Alchemist was subduing to with great gladness.

To introduce the virile member into the feminine vagina and to withdraw it without spilling the semen is the old formulae of ancient alchemists... This is the formula to awaken the igneous serpent and to achieve the union with the Intimate. According to Moses, the Intimate is the Real Being, the Ruach Elohim, who was sowing the waters in the beginning of the world.

This is how we convert ourselves into the Sun King, into the Triumphant Magi of the Snake... We become omnipotent Gods and with the sword of Damocles we defeat death... All of Nature kneels before us and the tempests serve as carpets for our feet.

Fohat is the Elixir of Long Life. We can preserve the body for millions of years with this elixir...

The woman is the vestal of the temple...the woman lights the flame of our sounding arquin, which vibrates within the cosmic spaces with the tremendous solemn and ineffable euphoria of the vast heavens of Urania...

*Woman, I love Thee...
It has been many nights that I weep dearly. ...dearly... but at the end of the journey I hear thy songs, and the dreaming stars tremble with love.*

*Then, the celestial muses kiss themselves with thy chants...
Thou art a sealed book of seven seals.
I do not know if Thou art joy or venom.
I am at the edge of an abyss, which I do not understand:
I feel fear of Thee and of thy mystery.
Woman, I adore Thee...*

*I want to drink the Mandrake's liquor,
I want to kiss thy bosom,
I want to feel the chant of thy words and I want to ignite my fires.*

*Woman, Thou cannot forget me,
Thou told me that Thou loves me and Thou swore to me thy love, in those adored nights...*

in those perfumed nights...
nights of chants and nests...*

*Old Priestess, ignite my wick, ignite my flame of triple incandescence;
nubile Vestal of a divine temple...

CHAPTER 2

THE ARCADIA

Who is that young man with a grayish tunic, black and profound eyes, hawk-nose, tall body and tousled mane?

Who is that joyful young man who laughs happily while in social gatherings with friends, who is broad-minded and blissful in an orgy?

Ah! He is Beelzebub, the king of parties, the simpatico friend of taverns, the joyful friend of orgies, the romantic, handsome, broad-minded man from ancient Arcadia...

I have clairvoyantly penetrated into the epoch of Saturn...I do not see anything vague or vaporous here, as Besant, Leadbeater, Heindel, and Steiner asserted. What of their powers? What of their knowledge? Why did they speak to me of vague things, when everything that I see here is concrete and exact?

These human beings of the epoch of Saturn were human...true humans, because they had a Being and they knew that this Being was within them...

Humanities are always analogous, and these human beings of the epoch of Saturn were like the present human beings, with a similar environment.

When speaking of humanity, what may come into our minds is: business, taverns, brothels, orgies, beautiful, frivolous maidens and handsome suitors, abducted princesses and ancient castles, neighboring sweethearts and night hawk poets, an elder who passes by and a child who cries, a mother who sings a lullaby of hope, or a monk who murmurs a prayer... To that end, the whole gamut of qualities, the various and diverse defects, are what constitute the human values...

Humanity is a womb where angels and demons are gestated. Therefore, the only outcome of humanity is nothing else but angels and demons...

There is no danger when the divine Monads are animating the three inferior kingdoms. Danger exists when they arrive to the human kingdom because from this human state the angel or the demon is the only outcome...

Beelzebub was a great rebel who shook his head and his tousled mane amidst the cups and delights of Arcadia... He had longings for wisdom, but his rebel eagle wings did not fit among the parochial rabble. His tremendous and fierce verb, with its magnificent and luminous proverbs, disturbed the imbeciles and unmasked the traitors...

The fire of eternity was burning within his soul and a scream of rebellion was shaking his titanic innermost parts...yet, he was enjoying all kinds of commodities and he was abiding in a comfortable and luxurious house of Arcadia, which was his rebel eagle's nest...

All was of a mental matter; all of the human beings were using astral bodies... They ate, dressed, drank and were enjoying themselves like in this present time, because the astral body is an organism almost as dense as the physical. Thus, it was analogously constituted as the physical body...

Certainly, these human beings of Arcadia were remembering ancient cataclysms and beautiful millenarian traditions from pre-saturnine epochs...but within the complete apogee of the human state; life was similar to that of the present time....

and liquors of mandrake.
Nights of revelry and orgy...
nights of carnival...
Romances of love and poetry... that are better not to remember...
Maidens of brunette chaste who fall upon arms... and who are weightless as the wind with those raiments of satin...*

CHAPTER 3

WHITE MAGIC AND BLACK MAGIC

The secret of the abyss is one of the seven great unutterable secrets...

Abaddon is the angel of the abyss. He wears a black tunic and a red cap, like those worn by the Dugpas and Bhons from the oriental Tibet and from the regions of Sikkim and Bhutan, also as worn by the black magicians from the altar of Mathra (pronounced Mazra by the Rosicrucian school A.M.O.R.C. from California).

Red cap magicians are also the venerable Anagarikas. To that end, all of these black magicians are the great hierarchies from the tenebrous caverns...

One thing is Theurgy and another thing is Necromancy... The internal master of the Theurgist is the Intimate. The internal master of the Necromancer is his Guardian of the Threshold to whom they call the guardian of their consciousness, the guardian of the precinct, the guardian of their chamber, the guardian of their sanctum...

The Intimate is our Divine Spirit, our Real Being, our Internal Angel.

The Guardian of the Threshold is the internal depth of our animal 'I'.

The Intimate is the ardent flame of Horeb. In accordance with Moses, the Intimate is the Ruach Elohim who was sowing the waters in the beginning of the world. He is the Sun King, our Divine Monad, the Alter Ego of Cicerone.

The Guardian of the Threshold is our Satan...our internal beast, the source of all of our animal passions and brutal appetites...

The Real Being of the Theurgist is the Intimate. The superior 'I' of the Necromancer is the Guardian of the Threshold.

The powers of the Intimate are divine. The powers of the Guardian of the Threshold are diabolic. The Theurgist worships the Intimate. The Necromancer worships the Guardian of the Threshold.

The Theurgist avails himself with the power of his Intimate in order to perform his great works of practical magic. The Necromancer worships the Guardian of the Threshold for his works of black magic.

We have arrived at the omnipotent empire of high and low magic.

The Astral Light is the battlefield between white and black magicians. The Astral Light is the clue of all empires and the key of all powers. It is the great universal agent of life. All the columns of angels and demons live within the Astral Light...

In order to attain Theurgy one firstly needs to be an Alchemist, and it is impossible to be an Alchemist without a spouse.

'V.I.T.R.I.O.L.' is one of the clues of the Gnostic Alchemist. The word signifies: "Visitam Interiorem Terre Rectificatum Invenias Occultum Lapidum." "Visit the interior of the earth, which through rectifying you will find the occult stone."

The clue is found within the flexible and malleable liquid glass... This liquid glass is the semen. Therefore, we have to sink ourselves within our own organic laboratory to increase, to rectify our liquid glass, with the goal of heroically expanding the philosophical stone, the force of Nous, the Immortal Logos, the Solar Snake, which sleeps with silent inquietude within the bottom of our ark.

The woman is the vestal of the temple. The vestal is the one who ignites the sacred fire of triple incandescence.

The elixir of long life is the potable gold, and that potable gold is the semen... The secret is to sexually connect oneself with the priestess wife and withdraw from her without spilling the semen.

I A O: These three vowels must be pronounced during the sexual trance as follows:

IIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIIII AAAAAAAAAAAAAA OOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Each letter requires a complete inhalation into our lungs. One completely fills his lungs and vocalizes the first vowel, then one completely fills his lungs again and pronounces the second vowel, and likewise the third.

This must be performed mentally in cases when the priestess wife is not prepared, in order to avoid wrong interpretations from her behalf.

The Kundalini awakens with this clue. We finally attain the marriage of Nous, and we conquer the beautiful Helen, the one for whom all the illustrious warriors of ancient Troy fought for.

The beautiful Helen is the igneous mind of the soul who is already betrothed to her eternal beloved, to her Intimate.

The beautiful Helen is the ardent mind of the Theurgist. The Theurgist transmutes the lead into real and permanent gold... The Theurgist grasps the sword and as a King of Nature, he resurrects the dead, heals the blind, the crippled and paralytics... He unleashes the hurricanes and heroically walks through the fiery gardens of Nature.

What inductive or deductive logic serves as a foundation for the Neoplatonic Plotinus and Porphyrius in order to combat the phenomenon of Theurgy?

All of the infinite existences of the universe are children of the phenomenon of Theurgy... There exists an enormous difference between the mirror of Theurgy and the mirror of Necromancy. The mirror of Eleusis is different than the mirror of Sodom.

The mirror of the school of Sodom is Necromancy and black magic. The mirror of the mysteries of Eleusis is pure and divine Theurgy.

The Initiate of Eleusis, while in the state of Manteia (ecstasy), was pronouncing the sacred syllable. Then, the Initiate's Intimate was appearing with light and beauty within the resplendent mirror... Many times the Initiate was provoking the state of Manteia when drinking from the chalice of Soma. He was thus transported into the ineffable pleroma of love.

The Necromancer of the school of Sodom begs the Guardian of the Threshold to appear in the mirror. Once the vision appears, the candidate becomes a slave of the Guardian of the Threshold and is converted into a black magician.

The ritual of first degree of the school of Sodom is the most monstrous crime ever committed against humanity. While staring in the mirror, the disciple invokes the monster of the threshold with these following questions that he asks to himself:

- 1 - Do you want to know the mystery of your being?
- 2 - Would you like to know the terror of the Threshold?
- 3 - Would you listen to the voice that answers?
- 4 - Did you ever hear the consciousness?
- 5 - Do you know that the consciousness is the internal voice that speaks when it has an opportunity to do so?
- 6 - Would you give the consciousness the freedom of speaking to you?

7 - Do you know that the consciousness is your guardian and therefore the guardian of this Sanctum?

8 - And do you know that this sacred guardian will always be present in this sanctum in order to guide you and protect you?

These questions are asked by the naive disciple, and after reciting some other paragraphs of black magic before the mirror, he says: "Before my brethren and lords and in the presence of the guardian of the Sanctum, I declare that I have approached the terror of the Threshold and that I do not have terror for my soul. Now I am a dweller of the Threshold, I have been purified and I have commanded my true 'I' (the Guardian of the Threshold) to exercise dominion over my physical body and mind."

This is how the naive disciple remains converted into a black magician, into a slave of the Guardian of the Threshold and of the darkness.

This ritual of black magic, adapted for this XX century, is very ancient. Beelzebub started his horrible career as a demon after having performed it in ancient Arcadia. In 1387, with just reason, the Tibetan reformer Tsong-Ka-Pa cast every book of Necromancy that he found into flames. As a result, some discontent Lamas formed an alliance with the aboriginal Bhons, and today they form a powerful sect of black magic in the regions of Sikkin, Bhutan and Nepal, submitting themselves to the most abominable black rites.

Jamblichus, the great Theurgist said: "Theurgy unites ourselves more strongly with divine nature. This nature is engendered by itself and acts in accordance with its own powers. It is intelligent and sustains everything, it is the ornament of the universe, and invites us to the intelligent truth, to perfection and to share this perfection with others. It unites us so intimately to all the creative acts of the Gods, in proportion to the capacity of each one of us. After accomplishing these sacred rites, the soul is consolidated within the actions of the intelligence of the Gods, until identifying itself with them. Thus it is absorbed by the primeval and divine Essence. Such is the object of the sacred initiations of the Egyptians."

Jamblichus was invoking and materializing the planetary gods.

Firstly, one becomes an Alchemist, then a Magician and finally a Theurgist. We awaken the snake and become Theurgists by practicing sexual magic. The whole secret resides in learning how to sexually connect ourselves with our spouse and to withdraw without spilling the semen (reaching the orgasm).

Naked dances, sexual magic and delectable music were something ineffable in the mysteries of Eleusis.

The Gnostic Church has opened its doors to all of humanity, and the mission of diffusing the snake's wisdom unto this suffering humanity has been granted to me, Samael Ann Weor.

(The word Manteia in the ancient mysteries of Eleusis, means Ecstasy).

ELEUSIS

*Manteia, Manteia, Manteia...
The music of the temple inebriates me with its delectable chant... and its sacred dance.*

And the exotic priestesses dance with the impetuous frenzy of fire distributing light and smiles, in that corner of paradise.

*Manteia, Manteia, Manteia,
and the serpent of fire,
amongst the august marble, is the princess of the sacred purple,
it is the virgin of very ancient castles.*

*It is Hadit, the winged serpent, engraved on the ancient roads of granite,
like a terrific and adored Goddess, like a genie of an ancient monolith,
in the body of the Gods entwined.*

And I saw in festival nights, delectable princesses on their berths, and the silent muse was smiling on the altars among the perfumes and silk.

*Manteia, Manteia, Manteia,
shouted the vestals,
filled with a crazy, divine frenzy, and silently looking at them were the gods immortal, under the porches of alabastine.*

*Kiss me my love, look at me, I love you...
And a whisper of delectable words were shaking the sacred arcanum... among music and roses of that sacred sanctuary.*

*Go dance exotic dancers of Eleusis among the jingle of your tiny bells, Magdalenes of a Via Crucis,

CHAPTER 4

THE TWO WAYS

“Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.” (Jeremiah 2 1:8).

The bewitching flower of crime grows by the shadow of liquor and the orgy.

The wild vermin and the writhing reptile make their nest by the shadow of the nubile foliage of passion.

In the middle of all the revelry and the bacchanalia, Beelzebub learned to gamble with a great amount of money. In reality, money and the original sin are coexistential: both are the tragedy of the human.

Gambling has driven the elegant lady and the cunning gentleman, as well as the workingman and the bohemian gambler to ruin and suicide.

Beelzebub learned the vice of gambling, and he laughed happily while in the bacchanalia, amidst the bare sound of the dice and the happy and triumphant pop of another bottle.

Yet, lo and behold, a mysterious personage was never absent within the orgy. This ominous personage with a sinister face was wearing a black tunic of Arcadian style and great rings of gold were always shining in his ears.

What mystery was surrounding this sinister personage?

Was he perhaps a genie of the light who came from remote spheres?

Was he perhaps some luminous lord of the flame or some ancient inhabitant from some historical epoch already ended?

No, nothing of the sort. This man was only a horrible and monstrous transgressor of the law, a black magician.

Beelzebub learned certain clues from this black magician in order to win in the vice of gambling. Their friendship was mingled with thankfulness and orgies. Thus, this sinister personage was conducting his victim throughout the black path...

The human beings of the epoch of Saturn were using astral bodies and they were tall in stature. At that time, our actual human bodies were only germs, which had the possibility of unfolding.

The present human “Intimates” (Spirits) were just virginal sparks who were animating the mineral kingdom. But, Beelzebub was a human being of that epoch because he had a Being and he knew that this Being was within him.

If Beelzebub had followed the narrow and straight way, which leads towards the light, he then would have become a lord of the mind, a son of the fire, like his most beloved friends. However, liquor, pleasure, gambling and fornication with its exotic flowers of malignant and seductive beauty were hypnotizing the weak and taking him into the abyss.

This is how Beelzebub became an intimate friend of this sinister personage, who with his miraculous clues was leading him triumphantly in the vice of gambling. Sadly enough, one day Beelzebub was finally prepared in order to receive the first initiation of black magic within a tenebrous temple... his master had made ineffable promises to him. He spoke to him a lot of love and justice, therefore doubting him was impossible, especially when he was always guiding him triumphantly with his marvelous secrets in the vice of gambling.

Likewise, in this day and age, how can the students of the school of Sodom doubt the Emperor of their sacred order, or of their “Holy Rituals”? The one who is going to fall does not see the gap.

The ritual of the first tenebrous initiation that the disciple Beelzebub received in the temple is the same first ritual that the students of A.M.O.R.C. perform today in their room in order to receive their first degree. Thus, in the same way that the student of first degree from “Sodom” remains enslaved by the Guardian of the Threshold after the rite, as well Beelzebub remained enslaved by the Guardian of the Threshold. This is how he started his career as a demon...

What occurs is that during the ordinary hours of sleep ‘VERITAS’, the Black Guru, takes the disciples of first black degree in astral body, and submits them to a very curious rite, which we will now observe:

The disciple goes sporadically around a table a few times, he strikes it, then he receives a brick from the hands of the initiator, who ceremoniously pronounces these words: “Underneath the devil, do not forget it.” Afterwards, the disciple buries the brick under the ground.

This ceremony symbolizes that the poor disciple has laid the foundation for his black fellowship and that he now has to obey the commands of the black fraternity. Afterwards, certain occult treatments are made upon the principal chakras of the head of this naive victim, with the goal of controlling him for the service of the black brotherhood. Also, a lens in a form of an eye is placed upon his neck, in order to influence him over the important centers of his subconsciousness. When the disciple awakes upon his bed, he does not bring back any memory of what happened in the astral plane.

The black magicians have their mysticism, and they always firmly believe that they walk on the good path. No black magician believes that he walks on the evil path.

The path of black magic is a broad way filled with vices and pleasures.

Mariela the great female black magician was filled with a delectable and fatal beauty. With her enchanting voice and tender face, she was agilely and weightlessly slithering upon the soft, thick carpets of the great and splendid halls of the oldest aristocratic lineage of the European nobility. Her seductive voice was resounding in the party like a poem of love, like a kiss from the shadows, like ineffable music. She was something like the romance of a symphony of Beethoven. She was Mariela, the great black magician, the splendid lady of all the European courts.

The ‘seventy souls of the cauldron’, with their gray hair, were resembling something like a garden of white daisies among perfume, silk and the swallow-tailed coats of the royal palaces... They were the seventy souls of the cauldron, a garden of white flowers, which were blown by a breath of death.

The testament of the seventy Hellenes was a testament of darkness and death. What about you Angela? That royal vesture with a long gown makes you look like the longed for fiancée of a lover who never arrives. You look like a mysterious nymph of a delectable enchanted labyrinth, you look like an unforgettable beauty within the velvety night strewn with stars.

How many times I saw you, oh Angela, like a fatal goddess amongst the bewitched mirrors of that elegant hall of witchcraft, where you were a queen of evil. What is the name, oh children of evil, of that splendid mansion which is similar to an idyll?

Ah! It is Javhesemo, the delectable hall of purple and silk. Fatal love and the beauty of the abyss of evil only reign there and every maiden is a poem, every smile an idyll, and every dance a romance of an unforgettable love... The limber and delicate waist of every malignant beauty is a bayadere within the silhouette of a mysterious landscape.

Andrameleck, the wealthy and pompous black magician of China, says that the human being is an angel, therefore, he does not need to suffer. He always advises his friends to enter into the aristocracy, to dress like princes and to collect a lot of money.

The black K. H., when talking about social matters, says that his disciples must be triumphant, and that the disciple who is not triumphant cannot be his disciple.

The black magicians love fornication and in order to justify themselves, they say such is a divine relationship.

The black magicians greatly know that the souls who move away from their Intimates eventually disintegrate themselves into the abyss. This is why a spokesman from the teachings of the brothers of the tenebrous caverns says that the soul is just a vesture and that it must be disintegrated, because they only have interest in their "Real Being" and that they long for the construction of their hiding place in the absolute. This is the dangerous mysticism of black magic.

Any neophyte in occult science will easily fall into this philosophy of a terribly malignant and seductive beauty...

The black magicians hate the Christ...and they consider him an evil personage. They say that the Lord Christ was not an Initiate, because no Initiate allows himself to be killed...

With this philosophy of darkness is how the black magicians elaborate their mysticism, and filled with rejoicing, they drink, cohabit and enjoy themselves... They assist in their great festivities and delectably dance in their elegant halls while enjoying and laughing in the arms of fornication...

The black path is easy and open. So, Beelzebub, the handsome and simpatico gallant of ancient Arcadia was oriented in this easy and happy path...

"...Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto light, and few there be that find it (the path which leads unto light is filled with caltrops and thorns). Many are called and few are chosen." (Matthew 7: 13).

Therefore, the majority of souls in our terrestrial evolution are lost. The black path, filled with vices and pleasures, was the easier and more accessible path for all of them.

The human evolution has failed! Only a handful of souls will be united with their Intimate and will enter into the angelical kingdom.

The majority of human souls will disintegrate themselves into the abyss throughout the centuries and eons, within the exterior darkness and the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Christ, the divine Redeemer of the world, came in order to publicly open the Initiatic path for all of humanity.

The whole Via Crucis of the divine Rabbi of Galilee is the path of the Initiation that the Initiate must walk on to go towards the Golgotha of "High Initiation". Once there, the soul is united with its Intimate and immortalizes itself and reaches the ineffable souls of pleroma.

The lethargy of impenetrable centuries weigh upon the august and sacred mysteries. The Verb made flesh lies in the bottom of our sacred ark, awaiting for the supreme moment of our resurrection.

The holy doctrine of the Savior of the world shines with the luminous and spermatic Fiat of the first instant, and the Rod of Aaron remains waiting for the footsteps of the snake.

The holy Gnostic Church is the zealous guardian of Pistis Sophia, which is the book in which all of the teachings of the Divine Rabbi of Galilee are found written. The very ancient and painful path through which all of the Masters of humanity have walked shines with resplendence in the bottom of all ages.

CHAPTER 5

THE STAFF OF THE PATRIARCHS

Beelzebub, each time more anxious for wisdom, was faithfully and sincerely accomplishing all of the commands, which his sinister instructor was giving to him.

He knew the course of his seminal currents and he awoke his Kundalini negatively through the procedures of fornication and concentration, as taught by Necromancy.

The twilight of the cosmic night was extending the velvet of its mysterious wings over the profound valleys and over the enormous and gigantic mountains of ancient Arcadia. The corpulent, millenarian trees, the last offspring from unknown parents, had already seen their autumn leaves falling during many long years, but now they seemed to definitively wither in order to fall into the arms of death.

Our current human bodies were in those times resembling human phantoms and the Intimates of our present humanity had already received their more fine vesture.

Terrible earthquakes were shaking Arcadia and everywhere a breath of death was sensed. From the enormous multitude of human beings, two types of creatures were the outcome: Angels and demons.

The ancient beauty of Beelzebub, the handsome gallant of Arcadia, had disappeared. His body was covered with hair and he took on the resemblance of a gorilla. His eyes took on the criminal and horrible aspect of a bull. His mouth became gigantic and presented as a snout of a voracious beast with its horrible teeth. His head with an enormous mane, his deformed and gigantic feet and hands gave him the aspect of a horrible, corpulent and enigmatic monster. This was Beelzebub, the enigmatic and handsome gallant of ancient Arcadia...

Was this the cup of wisdom from which he had wanted to drink from?

In order to reach such horrible monstrosity, did he have to pass all of those sacred initiations in the temple? Was this the nectar of science or the liquor of wisdom, which he was longing for?

*Wisdom, divine treasure,
Thou burns me with thy fire,
when I want to cry, I do not,
and if I do, Thou consoles me.*

*There was an old woodsman of the country, who did not know how to read nor write.
He only loved the edge of his ax yet, he felt a longing for life.*

*He was watering the furrows with his tears, while feeling love for Wisdom.
His pale cheeks were smiling when he inebriated himself with love and poetry.*

*Wisdom, Wisdom, Wisdom,
how much thou burns me exclaimed the agonizing elder under the blonde stars.*

*Wisdom, liquor of Gods, is a liquor which poisons, thus, in a very hard way my spirit will come:
Terrible, oh God of mine, is this torture of waiting.*

*Wisdom, for thee, I raise my cup, since I am tired of crying.
Wisdom, to thee I chant my strophes and await within the roses, the love that must come.*

*Wisdom, divine treasure,
Thou burns me with thy fire,
when I want to cry, I do not,
and if I do, Thou consoles me.*

Thus, the Kundalini awakened in a negative way and converted Beelzebub into a tenebrous potency of Nature.

During passionate fornication, the black magicians take advantage of the moment of seminal ejaculation by means of mental concentration. This is done in order to exert the ascension of the vitalizing hormones that are segregated by the sexual glands, towards the head. Then, with their mind, they take the hormones into the heart, which then sends them towards the fat toe of the right foot. This is how they awake their Kundalini in a negative way and they convert themselves into a monster with seven heads, which the Book of Revelation (Apocalypse) refers to.

There exist schools of black yoga in India, which instruct their disciples in that tenebrous science. We can reduce all of the profound studies of occultism into one synthesis: The Serpent. If we spill the semen (reach the orgasm), then we convert ourselves into devils, and if we do not spill it, we then convert ourselves into angels.

If the serpent ascends, then we are Gods, but, if the serpent descends, then the tail of the Demon is formed in us, and we become demons.

The tail of the Demon (the Kundartiguador) is a prolongation of the astral counterpart of the coccyx and is the result of the movement of the serpent, downwards, towards the earth.

The Kundalini is the Staff of the Patriarchs, the Rod of Aaron, the Reed of Brahma and the scepter of the Gods.

The Gnostic Alchemist awakes the Kundalini through the practicing of sexual magic. Thus, the Kundalini ascends through a conduct, which is in a canal called Sushumna. This igneous serpent is thick in those who have accumulated a lot of christonic substance (semen), but, it is thin in those who have not stored a lot of sexual energy.

The positive awakening of the Kundalini is accompanied by a great festivity within the temple.

Terrible pain is produced in the coccyx. Afterwards, the serpentine fire opens its way upwards, towards the head. The passing from one cannon into another is performed in accordance with the moral merits of the disciple. These cannons are the vertebrae of the spinal column, they are also called pyramids.

Any unworthy action takes the Kundalini of that disciple out from one or more cannons, in accordance with the magnitude of the fault. There are 33 cannons that we must conquer in order to reach the High Initiation, that is, the union with the Intimate.

These 33 cannons belong to the 33rd degree of Masonry. They relate also to the 33 years of the life of Christ. Thus, the 33rd degree is only acquired by the Masters of Major Mysteries.

The two 3s when united are the symbol of the union of the matter with the Spirit, the perfect circle of eternity, whose center is everywhere and whose circumference is nowhere.

The High Initiation is performed when the Kundalini has already reached the head, but in order for the Kundalini to triumphantly rise through the 33 cannons, it is necessary to practice in detail all of the teachings of the holy gospels. In order to reach the High Initiation we must first pass the nine arcades, that is to say, the nine Initiations of Lesser Mysteries.

All of the powers of the human being are awakened according to the ascension of the serpentine fire through the spinal column, since each cannon has its occult name and is related with specific powers.

A certain Master of Major Mysteries said that before reaching the High Initiation, he had the weakness of falling into a certain fault, therefore his Kundalini descended four cannons. Consequently, in order to reconquer them again, he had to struggle very much.

The ordeals of Initiation are extremely severe. The disciple has to follow a perfect, holy and chaste path. Thus, when reaching the Intimate, the human being becomes converted into a Master of Major Mysteries and into a Theurgist.

CHAPTER 6

I ACCUSE

After a period of cosmic repose, before the start of the Solar epoch, life recapitulated the Saturnine epoch. Then afterwards, the Solar epoch began.

The Earth was shining with resplendence with the ineffable colors of the astral light, and the matter of the universe was the same astral light.

The physical bodies of our present humanity were developed a little more and these bodies received the vital body, which in the present time serves as a foundation for the whole human biology.

The angels and demons of the Saturnine epoch were floating in the environment of the Solar epoch...

Here we clairvoyantly see Beelzebub, the prince of demons, surrendered to the worst crimes, an active member of a great temple of black magic. He was intensely struggling in order to make proselytes among that humanity of the Solar epoch. Consequently, there were many souls who he conquered for his tenebrous temple.

Beelzebub descended the thirteen steps of black magic, thus achieving the 13th black initiation, which converted him into a prince of demons. He was wearing around his waist the sinister cord of seven knots, which is worn by adepts of black magic.

He became skillful in mind control, and received the lost word of the black magicians, which is written "Mathrem" and which they pronounce "Mazrem". He placed upon his head of long hair the cap of black magic, and covered his wide and hairy shoulders with the black cape of the prince of demons. Upon his forehead appeared the horns of the devil (these horns are the mark of the beast). He became familiar with all the passwords and converted himself into a great hierarch of the black lodge, into a left handed adept.

The black magicians have some very curious passwords in order to recognize each other: "Arco" is the password for those of second degree. "Kheira" is the word for those of third degree, which they pronounce "Que-I-raa". "Mathra" is the password for those of fourth degree, which they pronounce "Mazra", and which is the lost word for the black magicians.

Mathra is the name of a temple of black magic. Such a temple is situated in 'JINN' state over the Mountain of Pico, or Pico's Mountain, on the Azores Islands.

The black magicians from the altar of Mathra are magicians of red cap, as are the Bhons and Dugpas from Tibet. The black rituals of this day and age come from this tenebrous Atlantean temple and not from Egypt as they falsely claim.

I, Aun Weor, the very ancient Hierophant of Egyptian Mysteries, accuse the black lodge before the verdict of the public consciousness of the crime of fraudulence. I accuse this black institution of the crime of attributing to us, the ancient Egyptians, the rituals of black magic, which we never used in Egypt.

I accuse the black lodge of the crime of profanation; I accuse the black lodge of making merchandise of the souls of men. I accuse the black lodge before the verdict of the public consciousness of the horrendous fraud of making their naive disciples believe their institution to be white.

People of America, rise as a single individual in order to once and for all end those dens of corruption which are leading millions of souls into the abyss. Brave people, heroic people, the hour of the great revolution has arrived, and there is no time to waste.

The hour of the great decisions has arrived, and we, all human beings, must reunite ourselves around the Divine Rabbi of Galilee, who from the summits of Golgotha exclaims: "My Lord, My Lord how hast thou glorified me!"

The black magicians of the fifth degree will scream their password "Astro" in vain, because that den of black magic will sink into the abyss, where the great beast and the false prophet abide.

The horrible victims of the sixth degree will scream "Zocas, Zocas, Zocas" in vain, because the edge of the sword of cosmic justice will seal their throats within the horrible darkness of desperation, where only weeping and the gnashing of teeth are heard.

What about you, black mystics of the seventh degree, in vain you will burn the witches' salt with alcohol and incense. The filthy guardian of your sanctum will be incapable of saving you from the darkness and desperation, because the millennium has arrived, and all of them who are not near to Christ will go into the abyss, even if they scream "Mathrem, Mathrem, Mathrem" as madmen.

THE ATOM NOUS

Beelzebub, the prince of demons, was expanding the lines of his legions with new proselytes, which he daily recruited among the human beings of the Solar epoch. In this way he converted himself into a hierarch of legions.

Filled with an ineffable beauty, the universe was resplendently shining. The humanity from the Solar epoch was similar to the humanities of any epoch. There was one among the human beings of that epoch who was tremendously struggling in order to attain perfection. This man was later known as Christ, the Divine Rabbi of Galilee, the Solar Logos.

There was another temple of black magic in the Solar epoch in which many human beings were initiated. They were later converted into demons. Astaroth was initiated in that black and gigantic temple.

When the cosmic night of the solar epoch approached after millions of years, the Four Lords of Flame endowed the present human Intimates (Spirits) with a Spiritual Soul or Buddhic body, which is the body of intuition.

The vehicle of intuition is directly connected with the heart. Accordingly, the heart is the center of intuition. Its chakra or lotus flower spins and shines with extraordinary beauty. Seven atomic centers exist in this chakra, which serve as instruments for the Seven Great Cosmic Hierarchies in order for them to act upon our marvelous organism.

As we have already stated in our book entitled The Perfect Matrimony, or The Door Entering into the Initiation, the heart of the Sun is constructed like the heart of our human organism. Just as Seven Hierarchs exist in the Sun who direct the seven cosmic rays, also seven brains exist in our heart which belong to the Seven Great Cosmic Hierarchies.

The sun has an atomic central nucleus, which is the Atom Nous, and is the dwelling of Brahma within us. This atom is the first vital center, which functions in the fetus and also the last one which stops living in our organism.

This atom contains the mind, life, energy and will power of the human being. It has an opal like luminous aura, which irradiates and shines.

At the end of the Solar epoch, the humanity of that epoch attained the Angelic state. They are the Archangels of present times. The highest initiate among them was Christ. But not all of the human beings of that epoch reached that state, since the majority converted themselves into demons.

Javhe is the contrary pole of Christ. Javhe was the highest black and tenebrous Initiate of that epoch. When the Cosmic Night arrived, then the universe seemed to submerge itself into the chaos. All of Nature entered into a happy dream... The seeds of all living things delivered themselves into the arms of dreams... Thus, the harps of the Elohim were delectably vibrating within the infinite spaces.

THE MIND AND THE INTUITION

The intellectual man lives in his head with its seven portals. The brain is made in order to elaborate thought, yet, it is not thought. The brain is nothing else but an instrument of the mental body.

The mental body is a material organism, yet it is not the physical organism. The mental body has its ultra-biology and its internal pathology, which is completely unknown to the present men of science.

The mental body is enveloped by a silken membrane, which protects it and keeps it in line with the cerebrum spinal nervous system. This covering is the Silver Shield of the mental body. Such a shield is completely covered by certain “truncated cones”. These are called “modules” which are the senses of the mental body.

One among these sensorial centers of the mental body permits this body to manipulate the individual and universal seminal currents. There also exists in our mental body certain senses which allow us to receive the wisdom from distinct stars. The lower counterpart of our Shield forms the convolutions of the brain.

The mental body has an atomic nucleus, which serves as its base. Such a nucleus is the Master Atom of the mind. This Master Atom contains the whole wisdom of Nature. Whosoever learns how to be in communication with such an Atom through meditation will be taught and instructed upon the cosmic wisdom, since this Atom is a sage.

This Master Atom resides in our seminal system. By practicing sexual magic, this atom rises towards our head and then illuminates us in the world of the mind.

The Silver Shield shines like gold when we practice sexual magic because millions of transformation atoms of high voltage cover it and totally transform it. Hence, the awakening of the consciousness and the aristocracy of intelligence truly arrive. Then indeed we can talk of having mental erudition and transformable ethics.

How can we talk of human sublimation, current achievement and of immediate results, without possessing solid mental erudition?

Are perhaps the intimate existent relationships between sexuality and the mind known?

The Psychoanalysis of Sigmund Freud should be studied in order to know the first notions of sexuality in relation with the mind.

Some believe that by playing sports, riding horses or by selecting other sensations, they will get that which pompously is called “the most new conceptions”, “mental erudition”, “aristocracy of intelligence” and spiritual rebirth.

How can an individual degenerate by the morbidity of carnal passion talk of having a methodical life and complete attention?

How can an individual whose mental body still has not been transformed by the transformation atoms talk about associations of ideas and of longings?

How can someone who has yet to have the Master Atom on his throne talk of having mental expansion?

How can the oversexed person talk of having a creative mind?

Do they not know that the thoughts which are not penetrated by the Determinative Energy of Nature (sexual energy) become disintegrated?

Do they ignore that the Determinative Energy is the sexual force?

How can an individual whose pineal gland is atrophied because of fornication talk of having courage, willpower and triumph?

Is it perhaps that the intimate existent relationship between the pineal gland and the sexual glands is unknown, and also because the pineal gland is the messenger of the center of thought?

How can an individual whose brain is weakened because of the vice of coitus talk of mental concentration?

How can an individual who has not re-encountered himself and who has become far away from his Intimate due to black magic talk about personal satisfaction and of being sufficient in oneself?

How can a weak soul be sufficient in oneself?

Did they not realize that the souls who are far away from the Intimate are weak souls?

The mind is divided into the concrete mind and the abstract mind.

One thing is the critic of practical reasoning and another is the critic of pure reasoning.

The contextual concepts which belong to the critic of practical reasoning are based upon experiences of external sensorial perceptions. Yet, the contextual concepts which belong to the critic of pure reasoning are nourished with prompt ideas and intuition.

The philosophy of Mr. Emmanuel Kant, the great Philosopher from Koenigsber, is totally ignored.

Therefore, the systems of “control” and of selection of sensations only yearn for enslaving the disciples of the critic of practical reasoning and the disciples of the inferior mind and concrete mind. Those systems are nothing else but pure and legitimate black magic. The desired outcome of such systems is to convert the disciple into a slave of the exterior Sensations and into a black magician.

The Brahma-Vidya is the mind of the Intimate.

The mind of the Intimate becomes the fruit or extract of all of the experiences acquired with the mental body.

The Brahma-Vidya becomes the aureole body of victory, mentioned in the book The Dayspring of Youth.

One thing is the mind as a mind and another thing is the mind as an instrument. The great cosmic illuminations are the outcome of the momentous unions of Brahma-vidya with the mental body. Thus, the soul united with its Intimate is submerged within the great soul of the world, within Emerson’s “super-soul”, and perceives all of the macro-cosmic marvels. Yet, in order to achieve these marvels, the opening of the eye of Dagma is necessary. This eye is the intuition.

The one who is already intuitive is so because he has a specially constructed mental body. The nucleus from such a mind is a circle of a resplendent violet color. Within the book Azug, the mind, which is thus organized, is called “Damiorfia”.

A Damiorfla person does not bend himself before the potencies of evil; neither is he a slave of maya (illusion).

Whosoever wants to study the book of oriental wisdom entitled Azug, has first of all to submit himself to great and terrible Initiatic ordeals. I received this book from the hands of the authentic Master of wisdom Kout Humi (K. H.).

So, the system of selecting sensations and piercing the mind with “controls” and more mind controls everyday, only achieves to enslave the disciple to his animal mind and to his no less fatalistic intellect. All of this is nothing else but black magic. The only thing which is achieved with these tenebrous teachings is the total separation of the Monad and the personality. Hence, the person ends up despising his Monad and rendering cult to his Guardian of the Threshold, to his internal beast.

One thing is the reasoning and another thing is the intuition. The reasoning only nourishes itself with the external sensorial perceptions (by means of the senses it perceives or receives the impressions and then produces the sensations). Thus, the reasoning ends up being negative and limited.

The reasoning person believes that he can attain the truth through the struggle of antithesis, but this only divides the mind and incapacitates it to comprehend the truth.

The intuitive person only knows how to listen to the voice of the silence. Thus, within his serene mind, the eternal truths of life are reflected with splendid beauty.

The reasoning person converts his mind into a battlefield filled with prejudices, fears, anxieties, fanaticism, theories and his conclusions are always favorable to him. Yet, such a turbulent lake can never reflect the sun of truth.

The mind of the intuitive one serenely and silently flows very far away from the black struggle of antithesis and from the storm of exclusivity.

The mind of the reasoner is like a ship that only knows how to change from harbors. From these harbors, which are called schools, theories, religions, political parties, etc., he acts and reacts with the already established precepts. A mind like this is a slave of the stagnant energies of life. Therefore, it ends up with complications and pain.

The children of intuition, as rebellious, high flying eagles, soar towards the sun of the great ineffable truths, free from fear, free from the longing of accumulation, free from sects, religions, schools, social prejudices, fanaticism of flags, anxieties, theories, intellectualism, hatred, selfishness, etc.

The mind of the intuitive one serenely and silently flows as a delectable, crystalline fountain of resplendent beauty within the august thunder of thought.

The mental body of the intuitive one is a marvelous vehicle of the Intimate. The mind of such an intuitive one only acts under the direction of the Intimate. I-fence, from this action emerges right exertion, right thinking and right feeling.

The human being who only moves himself under the direction of his Intimate in the world is a happy human being because he is far away from many types of complications and conflicts.

In order to reach the ineffable summits of intuition, there is the necessity of integrally living in accordance with the wise teachings brought unto the earth by the Divine Rabbi of Galilee. Therefore, the teachings of Christ are the teachings, which leads us towards the ineffable summits of intuition.

What is interesting is to exactly move ourselves in this physical world, in accordance with the wise teachings of the Master. What is important is to make the teachings of Christ become flesh and blood within ourselves.

Christ did not come in order to found religions. Christ came in order to unite ourselves with the Intimate (our eternal Father).

The whole teachings of Christ have the great musical rhythm from the plane of the waves of life, which is the Buddhic or intuitive world.

The Mantra “Aum Mani Padme Jum” develops intuition when it is daily vocalized for ten minutes. This Mantra is vocalized as follows: “Oooooommmmm mmmmmaaaaa sssssssiiiiiii padddddmeeeee yommmmm.” This is the mantra of intuition.

The practices of the teaching of Christ awake the chakra of the heart within ourselves and put in activity the Buddhic or Intuitive body, which leads us towards wisdom and eternal happiness.

Sexual magic forms part of the teachings, which Christ taught to his seventy disciples in secrecy.

While we practice the Christic teachings, the ethereal body becomes totally reorganized and its two superior ethers are increased in volume. Then, a certain center, which is formed within the head, descends into the heart and organizes a center for the intuition.

A protector net is formed around the ethereal body when we do not waste our Christic force. This is how this body remains protected from the exterior currents. The physical body becomes more fine and also more strong, and even the face is transformed and gains beauty.

The teachings of the Solar Logos operate upon all of our internal bodies, thus converting them into fine instruments of the Intimate. What is important is to live these teachings in our practical life.

Sadly, many people confuse the cosmic mind with the cosmic consciousness. One thing is the waves of the mind, and another is the waves of the consciousness.

The mind is nourished by the consciousness.

The cosmic consciousness reunites the affine waves of the mind.

The trident symbolizes the triple set of forces of the transformation atoms of the mind.

The mental body is not the 'I'. The mental body is only an instrument of the 'I'. Thus, to pretend to be enslaved by this material instrument is the breaking point of stubbornness.

The mind of the intuitive one is an ineffable chalice filled with beauty.

The mind of the intuitive one is the chalice of the Holy Grail saturated with the blood of the Martyr of Golgotha.

The mind of the intuitive one is the sacred cup of Pleroma, the sacred cup of Samadhi, the liquor of the Gods. It is the Soma, drank by the Lords of the Mind. It is the liquor of love, the Buddhic liquor, which is the wine of light already transmuted within the igneous vessel of the beautiful Helen. It is the cup of the immortal Gods!

HELEN

*Hail! Hail Gods immortals,
A toast for Ye, in this delectable chalice and a toast for the virgin of the seven portals.*

A toast for Helen of majestic face and to her I chant my songs under the immortal colonnades of her serene temple.

*Helen, fill my cup
with the wine of intuition
Helen, pour within my glass thy amphora of love...*

*Helen, console my painful heart.
I want to drink the liquor of wisdom even if it would add pain...
I want to inebriate myself with light and poetry and to awake in the arms of thy love.*

Beautiful Helen I love thee, thou art the burin of philosophy, thou art the fire of the arcane thou art the amphora of wisdom and the longed for fiancée of the wise.

The purple and the gold of ancient Ithaca, I place before thy feet.

*Oh Helen!
I place before thy feet the luxury of Atreida.
Oh nubile maiden,
I place before thee the Greek vessels.
Oh serene goddess,
I place before thy feet all the ancient citadels.

*Helen, fill my cup
with the wine of intuition, pour within my glass
thy amphora of love.*

THE LUNAR PERIOD

The dawn of the Lunar period began after the passing of the Solar period's cosmic night. Then the solar universe condensed itself into ethereal matter and life recapitulated all of the states of the past cosmic periods.

The beginning of our ethereal Earth, which is called the Earth-Moon (the Lunar Period in all of its plenitude), was initiated after those processes of recapitulation.

The human beings of the Lunar epoch were short in stature, and their bodies were of ethereal matter. They built their houses underground, even though they were placing roofs on their homes that were similar to those, which we place on our present houses. They negotiated, worked and were enjoying themselves the same way as we do. Their urban populations were small and were connected as our own towns are, by avenues and roads.

They also had automobiles similar to our cars. Their mountains were transparent like crystal and were of a very beautiful dark blue, which is like the blue color seen when looking at the mountains from a far off distance (which is the ether). The whole of our ancient Earth was of that beautiful color.

Volcanoes were in incessant eruption, and there was more water than in our present epoch. Immense lakes and vast seas were existing everywhere...

In this Lunar period, we see Beelzebub living in an enormous house, which was constructed beneath the ground. Here, within a large room, he was instructing his disciples. He was wearing a tunic of black and red stripes, a turban and a cape of the same color. He was a black magician who had a tall and robust body. All of his black chelas (disciples) were profoundly venerating him.

Beelzebub had two books: One book which he was reading to his disciples in order to instruct them, and the other that only he was studying in secrecy. There were a lot of proselytes among the human beings of the Lunar period, which he conquered for black magic.

The flora and fauna of that time was very different to our own. Here we clairvoyantly see plant- minerals, that is to say, semi-plants, semi-minerals, semi-animal plants, etc. In other words, the three kingdoms of Nature were not completely defined as in the present time, since in that epoch one kingdom was integrated with the other.

Among the trees there was the marked tendency for the branches and leaves to make a concave shape, which caused them to resemble gigantic umbrellas. Through all existent things, this marked tendency of inclining downwards was Nature's living scripture foreseen everywhere. Its process downwards was towards the condensation of our present physical Earth. Nature is a living scripture everywhere; therefore, its designs are written based on this living scripture.

On the other hand, we see in our present epoch, in this XX century, a marked tendency of the human being to build very high buildings, and airplanes each time more and more rapid, etc.

The branches of our actual trees do not want to incline downwards; instead they want to elevate themselves upwards to the sun. This is because our earth has already reached its maximum material condensation, and now it yearns to elevate itself anew, to “etherealize” itself again... Really the ether is inundating the air and etherializing the Earth each time more and more. Thus, at the end of the great Aryan Root Race, the ether will be totally visible in the air. Then, all the creatures who live in the ether will share all of their activities with the human being.

During the Lunar period, the physical bodies of our present humanity reached a high degree in their perfection. We acquired the astral body during that period.

We, the human beings of present times were the animals of the Lunar period. The angels and demons of ancient periods were floating in the ethereal atmosphere of our Earth-Moon. They were visible and tangible to the whole of that humanity.

Those human beings perceived the Archangels (Archangeloi) or Creatures of Fire behind the erupted fire of volcanoes, and the Lords of Formation behind all of the existent forms.

The Children of Life were regulating the vital functions of every existent thing, and the elemental creatures of the five elements of Nature were coexisting with the human beings.

The Lords of Wisdom were the ones who endowed us with the astral body. The Lords of the Personality were the ones who endowed us with personality, which at this present time is looked upon with much despise by the Theosophists.

The Intimates (Monad-Spirits) of this present humanity acquired the body of the Human Spirit, called the body of Will-Power, which Krishnamurti despises so much.

Will-Power is the power with which we can dominate our passions in order to convert ourselves into Gods.

When the law of the Gnostic Alchemist is accomplished (the introduction of the virile member into the feminine vagina and its withdrawal without spilling the semen) then, the fire of passion is transmuted into astral light. This is how the astral body is strengthened and is filled with resplendent light.

Therefore, all of the resplendent fruits of this marvelous astral organism are plunged within the body of Will-Power, which beautifies it.

The fire of chastity is the fire of the Holy Spirit, and the body of the Holy Spirit is the Body of Will-Power, also called Abstract Mind and Causal Body.

Really, the body of the Abstract Mind is converted into the Fire of Pentecost when inundated with fire by means of sexual magic. It utters ineffable things in all the languages of the world within the speechless human who is inebriated with the Holy Spirit. It is what the Holy Gnostic Bible textually states:

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.

And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. (The Acts of the Apostles, 2: 1-6)

Jehovah, the Holy Spirit, guards the body of the Holy Spirit in ourselves. Jehovah was the highest Initiate from the Lunar epoch.

Humanity was divided into angels and lucifers when that great period ended, since many are called, but few are chosen.

Max Heindel and Rudolf Steiner affirm in their books that all of humanity will be saved. This is due to the ignorance of these authors. Verses 23, 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 of the 13th chapter of Luke textually say:

Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them,

Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying Lord, Lord open unto us: and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

Then ye shall begin to say, we have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all of the Prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

When the cosmic night of the Lunar period arrived, Jehovah and his angels, Lucifer and his demons, withdrew themselves from the cosmic scenario. Thus, the whole of Nature entered into a profound repose.

THE TERRESTRIAL PERIOD

When the cosmic night of the Lunar period had passed, then the universe became condensed into a nebula, which is referred to by Laplace. It was the beginning of this physical-chemical epoch in which we presently live in.

Nature recapitulated all of the former cosmic periods, which are allegorically described in Genesis:

“In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters”. (Genesis 1: 1-2)

These were the times of Laplace’s nebula, during which the earth recapitulated the Saturn epoch.

“And God said let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.” (Genesis: 1: 3-4)

Then, the molecules of the dark heat nebula entered into friction under the powerful impulse of the lost word of the Creator, and this nebula ignited and became luminous.

This was the Hyperborean epoch during which the solar atoms from the Solar epoch entered into activity. Our Earth was an igneous globe filled with the wisdom of the fire, and filled with the light that the same fire produces. Thus, the Archangels (who were the human beings of the Solar epoch) were the beings who lived within this fiery globe. They expressed themselves with all of the plenitude of their wisdom.

“And God said, let there be a firmament in the mist of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.” (Genesis: 1: 5-8)

Here the Bible keeps referring to the recapitulation of the Solar period. Moisture was generated by the contact of this igneous globe with the surrounding interplanetary regions, which are cold. Enormous clouds were condensed which were gravitating back to the source of heat in the form of rain, and enormous seas and wells were formed which were incessantly boiling upon the fiery globe. Thus, the clouds separated the waters of heaven from the waters of the fiery globe:

“And God said, let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called He seas; and God saw that it was good.” (Genesis: 1: 9-10)

The incessant boiling of the water wells surrounding the fiery core finally caused encrustation and the dry land appeared upon the surface of the fiery globe. Thus, the word of the Creator was accomplished when He said: “and let the dry land appear...And God called the dry land Earth.” This is how the first terrestrial crust called Lemuria was formed.

During this Lemurian epoch, the Earth recapitulated the Lunar period because the following law in life exists: Before initiating its new manifestations, Nature has to recapitulate all of its former manifestations.

Therefore, whosoever wants to objectively know all of the evolving processes of humanity has to observe the human fetus from its very conception. Within the maternal womb, the human fetus recapitulates the whole metamorphosis of the human body from its very ancient origins.

The human body is nothing else but the scale of our igneous serpent. Thus, the solar universe is only the scale of the serpent of the Solar Logos of this Solar System.

When the serpent abandons the scale, the scale is disintegrated (this igneous serpent is the Kundalini, referred to in the chapter entitled the Staff of the Patriarchs).

The Mountain of Juratena

There exists in Colombia a very high mountain named ‘The Juratena’. This mountain is situated in the Vasquez territory, state of Bocaya. It is at the shore of the broad and profound waters of a river named ‘Minero’.

The peasants say that the mountain is “enchanted”. They tell the most ancient traditions about it. They say that when it is going to rain they feel the noise of enormous, rocky boulders, which roll towards the abyss, and when they want rain, it is enough for them to light the mountain with fire, in order to have rain in abundance.

These peasants do not care a bit about the commentaries of scientists regarding these matters. As Goethe has stated: “Every theory is gray and only the tree of the golden fruits of life is green.”

These peasants narrate that the summit of this mountain is accessible through some high steps of rock, which were carved by very ancient hands. One of these peasants was telling the author of this current book how he was stopped by a rain of rocks thrown by invisible hands when drawing near to these millinery high steps. He was close to perishing under the rolling weight of a gigantic boulder, which almost squashed him.

Another peasant explored the base of the mountain while following the course of the broad and profound waters of the river. He happened upon enormous boulders of granite, which were bathed by the boisterous waters of the river, and then he found a gigantic temple inlaid within the living rock. This peasant tried to enter into the temple through the central door (since this gigantic temple had three doors), but he found himself surrounded by many serpent skins. Consequently, he flew away terrified. Later on, he returned to this place in order to see the temple, yet he did not find anything. That temple disappeared, as if it had been swallowed by those gigantic rocks.

I, Samael Aun Weor, visited that temple in my astral body. The Masters who dwell there welcomed me with their open arms. They lead me towards the interior of this monastery, which was illuminated by a seven armed candelabra of massive gold, similar to the seven armed candelabra of gold from the temple of Solomon. I then received from them secret teachings.

Theosophists believe that the Masters are only in Tibet, and some of them would like to travel there in order to follow the “Chela-hood” (fellowship). Yet, the monasteries of the White Lodge are sprouting all over the world.

In the east, the Mahatmas are called “Nagas”, that is to say, “serpents”. This is why all of the guardians from the sacred crypts of the temple of mysteries have the figure of gigantic serpents, who only allow Initiates to enter.

The poison of a snake kills, yet, we can arrive to the High Initiation with this poison, which is a ‘precious arcanum’. Listen to me, Initiate Reader, “the hiss of the snake is the base of 4fe.” This statement is not for all readers, therefore, “He that hath an ear, let him hear.”

The inhabitants of “tierra liana”, State of Zulia, Venezuela, make the serpents flee when they pronounce the following mantras:

Ooooooooooooo Sssssssssssssssssssssss Iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii
 Ooooooooooooo Sssssssssssssssssssssss Ooooooooooooo Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa
 Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa Sssssssssssssssssssssss Iiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii

The vowels of these mantras are I. A. O. which are combined with the tremendous letter S. “Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding, understand.”

Even though Grammarians do not say so, the letter ‘S’ is also a vowel.

We have to pronounce the three vowels I. A. O. together with the priestess wife, while connected during sexual magic, because, I. A. O. is the name of our serpent..

To clarify this chapter, we will say: The Polar epoch corresponds to the Mercurial Intelligence of the serpent of the Logos (the heat).

The Hyperborean epoch corresponds to the serpent’s solar atoms (the fire).

The Lemurian epoch corresponds to the lunar atoms of the serpent of the Logos (the humidity).

Our Kundalini is also formed from solar and lunar atoms and from a synthesis of omniscient atoms. Hence, the wisdom of seven eternities is integrated within the serpent.

The woman is the vestal of the temple, thus, the fire of the temple is lit by the vestal. In ancient times, the fire was guarded and lit by the vestals. This symbolizes that only the woman has the unique capability of lighting her husband’s fire of Kundalini, which is the fire from our body or our temple. The temple of the very high living God is our body and the fire of this temple is the Kundalini, which our vestal spouse lights by means of the same sexual contact, or sexual magic, as taught in the book The Perfect Matrimony, or The Door Entering into Initiation, and as well within this current book.

In this present time, the Roman Catholic Church has totally lost the tradition. That is why we see that in this Roman Church the fire of the temple is lit by acolyte boys, an action that is not only an absurdity, but more over, a very grave sacrilege and an insult to life itself.

Continuing on, we say that the former cosmic periods actually exist within our seminal atoms and it is merely enough to learn the technique of interior meditation in order to enter into their dominions.

The entering door to those powerful atomic civilizations is in our sexual organs.

The pralayas and manvantaras are happening within an always eternal instant. Past and future are joined within an eternal now.

Time does not exist! It is the mind of the human being that is in charge of dividing the eternal now into past and future!

The powerful Saturnine, Solar and Lunar civilizations still exist in the depth of our seminal system. We can enter into their dominions by means of interior meditation. The transition of the consciousness from one state into another is what we erroneously call time, but these states of consciousness are in a successive enchainment within an eternal now.

Therefore, the human being must learn to always live in the present, liberating himself from all type of pompous theosophy, religious sectarianism, country and flag fanaticism, religions, intellectualism, yearning for accumulation and general attachments. All of these hedonistic parrot cages are nothing else but a den of business and tyranny. We gain nothing from their gibberish, because they only achieve to fill us with prejudices and absurd fanaticism!

The whole wisdom of all ages is within ourselves. Past and future are joined within an eternal now!

All of the cosmic wisdom is within ourselves. The solar atoms initiate us into the wisdom of the fire. The lunar atoms initiate us into the very ancient Neptunian Amentine wisdom. The sacred fire awakens and we convert ourselves into Gods when these solar and lunar atoms make contact.

During full moon nights, the lunar atoms make contact with the Silver Shield of our mental body. At that time we can receive the teachings of the lunar wisdom by means of meditation. Seven lunar ethereal currents exist. The civilization of our ancient Earth-Moon intensely lives within them.

The solar and lunar civilizations live within our interior worlds and we can visit those civilizations by means of profound interior meditation.

The solar and lunar civilizations, which intensely palpitate within our own internal worlds, initiate us into their profound truths. They take us to the great illumination by means of the awakening of the sacred fire of Kundalini, through sexual magic.

Our seven chakras are seven internal churches and each one of these seven churches contains the wisdom of a cosmic period. When we have opened the seven seals from the seven churches of the human book with the sword of the Kundalini, then the seven churches deliver to us the whole cosmic wisdom of the seven cosmic periods of the Mahamanvantara. This is how we become omniscient...

The book of the Apocalypse (Revelation) says the following:

And when he had opened the seventh seal, there were silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

And I saw the seven angels, which stood before God, and to them were given seven trumpets.

And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer and there was given unto him much incense that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand (Revelation: 8: 1-4)

Here, the Apocalypse refers to the book sealed with seven seals, which is within our organism with its seven churches. It clearly tells us that only the Lamb can open its seven seals with the sword of the Kundalini.

The Lamb is our interior Angel, that is to say, our Intimate. When the seventh seal is opened (the seal that is related with the church of Laodicea, situated on the head) then the Lamb teaches that the seven Angels of the seven trumpets are the same seven Angels of the seven churches.

The Angel with the golden censer is our Intimate, who triumphantly enters into the white hierarchy along with his diamond soul. He becomes another perfect one among the community of the elected ones...

And the angel took the censer, and filled it with the fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, and thundering, and lightings, and an earthquake. (Revelation: 8: 5)

Here the Apocalypse tells us that when we have opened the seventh seal with the sword of the Kundalini, then the seven churches open their doors for us, and teach us the wisdom of the seven great terrestrial periods, which correspond to the seven great cosmic periods.

The eighth chapter of the Apocalypse continues referring to the seven Angels stating that when they consecutively sound their respective trumpets, the great cosmic events are successively occurring.

These seven Angels are the Angels of our seven planets, who direct the seven chakras of our organism and also the seven terrestrial epochs.

Therefore, the seven terrestrial epochs are directed by seven cosmic hierarchies and the whole wisdom of all of these seven epochs is within our seven chakras... Our terrestrial period has seven epochs.

And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud; and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:

And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth.

And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices. (Revelation: 10: 1-3)

This Angel is the hierarch of the seventh epoch. The rainbow symbolizes our present terrestrial period, which started with the rainbow (Genesis 9:12-13). This happened in Atlantis, because Lemuria was a recapitulation of the Lunar period.

The little book that the Angel had in his hand is the book of human evolution. It is the book sealed with seven seals, yet, it is the book already without seals. It is the human organism of the one who has already opened the seven seals, it is the body of the Master. It is the cosmic wisdom of the one who has already reached deep self-realization.

“And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth. and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.” (Revelation: 10: 3).

Here the Apocalypse tells us about the lost word, about the sacred syllable that the seven thunders of the seven chakras uttered with their voices. These voices are the seven notes of the lost word. The sacred syllable opens the seven chakras and so each chakra has its own key note. “He that has an ear, let him hear. Here is wisdom. Let him that has understanding understand.”

The lost word shall be found in the seventh epoch.

And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not. (Revelation: 10: 4)

Each note of the lost word encloses tremendous unutterable secrets. Each note of the lost word is the key note of a terrestrial epoch. Thus, the key note of the Egyptian civilization is one note, and another is the key note of the Hindustani civilization, and so forth successively.

In the days of the seventh epoch, the lost word shall totally fulfill the mystery of the kingdom of God. The Swedish mystic philosopher Swedenborg said the following when referring to the lost word: “Search for it in China, and maybe, you will find it in the great Tartar.”

The black magicians of Sodom use the mantra “Mathra” (they pronounce it Mazra) for their demonic goals. They assert to their disciples that “Mathra” is the lost word, yet, in reality, this word is the name of a temple of black magic of ancient Atlantis and at the same time a mantra for black magic. Thus, “Mathra” is not the lost word.

In India, the Arahats were persecuted because they were possessing the sacred syllable.

In China, the disciples of “Tathagata” possess the lost word.

In Tibet, the lost word is very well protected, for here is where the “Maha-Choan” abides.

The lost word shall be found in the seventh epoch.

But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he had declared to his servants the prophets.

And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things that are therein, that there should be time no longer. (Revelation: 10: 7, 6)

The Initiate who is already united with his Intimate is liberated from the illusion of time, because past and future are joined within an eternal now.

Each one of the seven terrestrial epochs finishes with a great cataclysm, which is symbolically described in the Apocalypse in the following way:

And the first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon earth: and the third part of the trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up. (Revelation: 8:7)

This was the first cataclysm of the first epoch.

And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood; And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of the ships were destroyed. (Revelation: 8: 8-9)

This was the end of the second epoch.

And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. (Revelation: 8: 10-11)

This was the end of the third epoch.

And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. (Revelation: 8: 12)

This was the end of the fourth epoch.

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. (Revelation: 9: 1-2)

The abyss is the Avitchi, which is a submerged plane of consciousness, where only the weeping and gnashing of teeth are heard. Here is where the souls who have horns on their forehead enter. The horns on the forehead are the mark of the beast. In this present times, the abyss is open and millions of demonic souls are entering into the abyss.

And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is ABBADON, but in the Greek tongue hath his name APOLLYON. (Revelation: 9: 11)

We are in the epoch of wars because they are necessary, since war produces millions of dead. Thus, the souls who have horns on their forehead enter into the abyss. (Any clairvoyant can see the demonic souls).

And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God.

Saying to the sixth angel, which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men. (Revelation: 9: 13-15)

This will be the sixth epoch. In that epoch the human demons will be taken into the abyss again, after a very good opportunity for progress has been given to them.

And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever. (Revelation: 11: 15)

In those future times, the Earth will be more ethereal and only the human beings who have reached the angelical state will live in it, because the millions of demonic souls will definitively go into the abyss, where they will be disintegrated throughout the ages. This is the second death!

CHAPTER 11

LEMURIA

And Jehovah Elohim planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. (Genesis: 2: 8)

There has been much discussion regarding the topic of the terrestrial paradise. Max Heindel sustained that the terrestrial paradise is the astral light, yet, he did not inquire into what the word “terrestrial” signifies.

Really, this paradise existed and was the continent of Lemuria, which was situated in the Pacific Ocean. It was the first dry land that existed in the world. The temperature during that time was extremely warm. “But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.” (Genesis: 2: 6).

The very intense heat together with the water mist was creating a foggy atmosphere.

Consequently, human beings were breathing through gills like fish. “So, Elohim created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.”

(Genesis: 1: 27).

The human beings of the polar epoch, the hyperborean epoch and even in the beginning of the Lemurian epoch were hermaphrodites. They reproduced themselves as hermaphrodite microbes reproduce themselves.

In the earliest times of Lemuria, there was almost no differentiation between the human species and the animal species. Yet, after 150,000 years of evolution, the Lemurians reached a very grand degree of civilization, which we, the Aryans are still very far from reaching.

It was the Age of gold, it was the age of the Titans. It was the delectable time of Arcadia, a time in which “what is mine and what is yours” did not exist, because everything belonged to everybody. It was the time in which the rivers were pouring forth milk and honey.

The imagination of the human being was an ineffable mirror in which the panorama of the starry heavens of Urania was solemnly reflected. The human being knew that his life was the life of the gods. The one who knew how to play the lyre was shaking the divine fields with his delectable melodies. The artist who was handling the brush inspired himself with the eternal wisdom. He gave to his delicate sculptures the tremendous majesty of God.

Oh, the epoch of the Titans! It was an epoch in which the rivers were pouring forth milk and honey.

The Lemurians were of a high stature and they had a broad forehead. They wore symbolic tunics, which were white in the front and black in the back. They had flying ships and boats propelled by atomic energy. The lighting system used in the Lemurian structures was made from nuclear energy. They reached a very high degree of culture.

Such were the times of Arcadia. The human being knew how to listen to the voice of the gods through the seven vowels of Nature.

The seven vowels I. E. O. U. A. M. S. were resounding in the Lemurian bodies with all of the ineffable music of the accentuated rhythms of the fire.

The Gnostic disciple must vocalize for one hour daily the vowels in the described written order. Each vowel must be prolonged as follows, emptying the lungs with each intonation.

 OOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO
 UUUUUUUUUUUUUUU
 AAAAAAAAAAAAAA
 SSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSS

The letter ‘I’ makes the pituitary and the pineal glands to vibrate, thus, the human being becomes clairvoyant.

The letter ‘E’ makes the thyroid gland to vibrate, thus the human being becomes clairaudient.

The letter ‘O’ makes the chakra of the heart to vibrate, thus the human being becomes intuitive.

The letter ‘U’ awakes the solar plexus (tip of the stomach), thus, the human being awakes telepathy.

The letter ‘A’ makes the chakra of the lungs to vibrate, thus, the human being acquires the power of remembering his past lives.

The vowels ‘M’ and ‘S’ efficiently help in the development of all of the occult powers.

Therefore, one hour of daily vocalization is more worthy than reading a million books of oriental theosophy.

The body of the Lemurians was a miraculous harp where the seven vowels of Nature were sounding with the tremendous euphoria of the cosmos.

When night was arriving, all of the human beings were falling asleep as innocent creatures within the cradle of Mother Nature. They were lulled with the very sweet and moving chant of the gods. Thus, when the dawn was rising, the sun was bringing diaphanous contentment and not tenebrous grief.

Oh the epoch of the Titans! Those were the times in which the rivers were pouring forth milk and honey.

The matrimonies of Arcadia were Gnostic matrimonies. Then, the human beings were performing the sexual connubii under the commands of the Elohim, and as a sacrifice on the altar of matrimony, in order to provide bodies to the souls who needed to reincarnate. Fornication was completely unknown and there was no pain in giving birth.

Throughout many thousands of years, Lemuria was sinking within the boisterous waves of the Pacific Ocean; meanwhile, the Atlantean continent was emerging from the bottom of the ocean.

CHAPTER 12

THE WAR IN HEAVEN

And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon, and the dragon fought and his angels.

And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hat but a short time. (Revelation: 12: 7-9, 12)

There have been two wars against the black magicians: First, the war in Arcadia, and the second, the one in the year 1950, a date in which the pit of the abyss was opened. The latter is the war related with the Millennium. The third war will be the one related with the new Jerusalem.

When the terrestrial period was initiated, the mental plane and even the most divine planes of consciousness were densely super-populated by every type of white and black magician who belonged to the Saturnine, Solar and Lunar periods.

The millions of black magicians were constituting gigantic populations of evil, who were obstructing the action and life of the white magicians. Hence, they were already a grave inconvenience for the cosmic evolution within the superior worlds of consciousness.

If life would have continued in that way, then the progression of aspirants toward the superior worlds would have been impossible.

Therefore, the White Fraternity gave the mission of casting out all of the black magicians from the superior planes of consciousness to Michael. He received the Sword of Justice, and tremendous powers were granted to him so that he could totally accomplish his mission.

All of the organizations of the black lodge and all of the temples of that tenebrous fraternity were established in the superior planes of consciousness. Michael was able perform this mission due to the fact that he belonged to the ray of power.

So, Michael fought in tremendous combats, hand to hand with the terrible hierarchies of the black lodge. This is how the great Dragon, the old serpent called the Demon, Satan, or black magic with all of its legions of demons, was cast out from the superior planes of consciousness by Michael.

Luzbel is a great hierarch of the black lodge. He wears a red cape and a tunic of the same color. His tail or Kundartiguador is extremely long, and he carries at the end of it a coiled papyrus on which is written the science of evil. The tail of the demons is formed when the current of the Kundalini is directed downwards, towards the infernos of the human being. Therefore, this tail is nothing else but the Kundalini itself, that has departed downwards from the coccyx.

The horns of every black magician are certainly the mark of the beast. These horns belong to the Guardian of the Threshold, who becomes the superior 'I' of the black magician.

Ariman, a great black hierarch, wears a red turban and he is chief of enormous legions. Lucifer was the greatest black Initiate from the Lunar epoch. His legions are numerous.

All of these millions of demons remained in the environment of our Earth. They dedicated themselves to placing all of the human souls on the way of the black path.

Beelzebub, with his legions, also established himself in our environment. He became very well known by all of the present human beings throughout time. In the Bible, Beelzebub is called the God of Ekron, because a temple was built for him in Ekron, and he was worshipped there as a god.

So, Beelzebub established his cavern and dedicated himself fully, as in the ancient periods, to misleading souls.

The Bible refers to Beelzebub in Matthew, chapter twelve, verses 24-27, as follows:

But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, this fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself how shall then his kingdom stand?

And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges.

All of the black magicians established their temples, lodges, halls, cults etc., on our Earth, and they dedicated themselves to the developing of their plans in accordance with the supreme commands of Javhe.

Therefore, they are responsible for the failure of our present human evolution, since it is a terrible reality that this present human evolution has failed.

Michael triumphed in the heavens, but our Earth was filled with profound darkness.

CHAPTER 13

ATLANTIS

The human beings of Atlantis reached a very high degree in their civilization, similar to that of the Lemurians. During that time, the Earth was enveloped by a thick mist, and the human beings were breathing through galls. The Lemurian flying ships and boats propelled with atomic energy were also known in Atlantis.

In the beginning of this civilization, sexual relations were only performed with the objective of engendering bodies for the reincarnating souls. The proper day and hour was chosen by the angels, and for this reason childbearing was painless. The human being was living in a paradisiacal state, yet Lucifer and the lucifers, who are the black magicians from the Lunar period, tempted the human being and they mislead him towards the black path.

The serpent is the sexual force, and not simply material attraction, as supposed by the Rosicrucians in their monographs of ninth degree.

The sexual force has two poles: positive and negative. The positive is the serpent of bronze, which was healing the Israelites in the wilderness. The negative is the tempting serpent of Eden.

The work of the lucifers was a work of black magic. They awoke the passionate fire of humanity, with the only purpose of creating proselytes for the black lodge, since every demon is a fornicator.

The cephalic-rachis liquid and the semen are the poles of the sexual energy. The angel has the two poles upwards, towards his head. The common and current human beings and the demons have one pole upward and the other downward. They form the brain with one pole, and they fornicate with the other pole.

The Kundalini of the angel goes upwards, yet, the demon's Kundartiguador goes downwards.

Jehovah prohibited fornication to man, yet, Lucifer seduced him towards it

And Jehovah Elohim commanded the man saying Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shall not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die. (Genesis: 2: 16-17)

And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die.

For God dot know that in the day ye eat thereof then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. (Genesis: 3: 4-5)

The commandment given by Jehovah is white magic. The commandment given by Lucifer is black magic.

When the human being delivered himself to the pleasures of the coitus he lost his occult powers. Thus, the words of Jehovah were accomplished when he said:

In the sweat of thy face shall thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken; for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. (Genesis: 3: 19)

Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. (Genesis: 3: 16)

The violation of any law always brings pain. Childbearing was painless for the women in Lemuria because the child was engendered in the very hour, minute and second which the cosmic laws were favoring for reproduction. Thus, the violation of this law brought pain in childbirth.

Nonetheless, in this day and age there is still a remedy for those who resolve to follow the Gnostic matrimony.

The Gnostic matrimony returns the human being to paradise. In the Gnostic Church, the Gnostic matrimonies receive the exact day, hour and minute in which they have to engender their children. Thus, there is no pain in childbirth. What is important is to know how to travel in astral body, in order to visit the Gnostic Temple. I will give these clues later on.

The Lemurians did not know death. They knew the exact date and hour of their disincarnation, and so they were digging their own tombs. They were abandoning their own body by will and with a smile on their lips.

They also never disappeared from the sight of their relatives, because they were clairvoyant. They kept coexisting with the dead because death was simply a passing into a different state. But when the human being lost his powers because of the coitus, then he knew death.

CHAPTER 14

BLACK MAGIC OF THE ATLANTEANS

The black magicians of the school of Sodom say that black magic does not exist, that it is only a superstition. They say that evil and hateful thoughts which are emitted by evil minds are disintegrated since “the cosmic” is pure goodness. Therefore, it cannot serve as an instrument for the forces of evil.

The goal of the above noted statement of the black magicians from the school of Sodom is to justify their tenebrous teachings, in order to give them the false appearance of being pure white magic.

The cosmic is the whole Infinite, and in the cosmos there are many things. As above so below.

If a thought which is emitted by an evil one is disintegrated at once, why then is not a bullet disintegrated in the atmosphere? Why does the cosmic serve as an instrument for a bullet, which is going to kill a human being, who might be an elder or a child?

If that concept of the black magicians from the school of Sodom would be true, then the bullet should disintegrate itself at once.

Possibly they would argue by saying to me that the bullet is a material body and a thought is not. Yet, this is also not a good explanation because thought is also matter. Nothing can exist, not even God, without the help of matter.

Moreover, every atom is septuple in its constitution. The bullet used as an example is a compound of physical, ethereal, astral, mental, causal, conscientious and divine atoms. In other words, the bullet is a nucleus of atomic consciousness, which is charged with the waves of hatred from the one who shot it.

Why then is the bullet not disintegrated? Why does the cosmic serve as an instrument for the bullet?

Why does the cosmic serve as an instrument for the destructive waves of the atomic bomb? Could it be conceivable that the mental waves are inferior to the radioactive waves of the atoms of Uranium?

Hence, that concept of the black magicians from the school of Sodom serves them only in order to conceal their crimes and to cheat naive people. The only thing they want is to justify themselves as white magicians.

Do not covet powers beloved reader. Powers are born as fruits of our Intimate when our soul has been purified. The mental force that we stubbornly use in order to move a piece of paper, would be better used in order to dominate our carnal passion, in order to end hatred, in order to dominate our language, in order to defeat selfishness, envy etc.

Let us purify ourselves, since powers will be granted to us through successive purifications. Powers are flowers of the soul and fruits of the Intimate. The powers of a Mahatma are the fruit of millinery purifications.

The Gnostic disciple receives distinct powers from the White Lodge through the Initiatic ordeals. These powers are acquired by the soul and the Intimate ‘seizes’ them because the Intimate is the real human within ourselves.

For instance, when the Gnostic wishes a distant friend to come near to him, then, he begs his Intimate as follows: “My Father, I beg you to bring near to me (name the person), but not as I will, but as you will.”

If his Intimate considers that his petition is just, then the Intimate performs the miracle, that is to say, He performs a work of Theurgy, and the distant friend arrives. Yet, if the Intimate considers that the petition is unjust, then the Intimate does not perform the petition of his soul. This is pure white magic.

The black magician proceeds to use his so called “Asuncion” or will power, without taking the will of his Intimate into account.

“Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven” is what the Gnostic says, because the Gnostic only performs the will of his Intimate on earth as it is in heaven, in other words, in the superior planes of consciousness. The Gnostic places all of his longings in the hands of his Intimate.

We prepare our pituitary and pineal glands for clairvoyance by dominating anger and acquiring serenity. We prepare ourselves for the awakening of the inner ear when we always utter words of love and truth.

Sexual magic, daily vocalization and incessant purification take us towards the summits of the High Initiation.

To not covet powers does not signify that we, the Gnostics, take on a passive attitude, as do the Theosophists. We have to prepare ourselves when practicing sexual magic, when vocalizing, and when we expel all of the rubbish from ourselves.

The Gnostics transmute their sexual secretions and patiently await in order to be worthy of receiving their occult powers, that sprout as flowers of the soul when they have already purified themselves.

The Gnostics do not covet powers, on the contrary, they prepare themselves in order to acquire them. The preparation of the Gnostic is to purify himself and to practice sexual magic daily.

In their temples, the black magicians have established similar ordeals to those of the white magicians. In order to be accepted as candidates for their initiation, the likely candidates are allowed to receive insults, grumbles, to listen to humiliations, and to even receive blows to their person whilst in their festivities.

In the fifth monograph of the ninth black degree of the school of Sodom, the disciple receives a parchment after passing the four ordeals of earth, water, fire and air within a temple of black magic. The parchment states the following:

“Peace, greetings from the Master of the temple. By decree of the high priest, and by all of the guardians who have served and veiled over you, as proof of your perseverance, faith and desire, and in accordance with what has been manifested in the external chambers, you are allowed to enter into the following Sanctum. You will await to be prepared in order to be admitted into the holy of holies after three days of sanctification and purification. Your name will be 777, your letter will be R, your salutation will be Aum, your book will be the one with the letter ‘M’, your jewel will be the green Jasper which is in the shape of a scarab, and your hour will be nine. Rest with patience and await the hour, the number and the sign.”

This is pure and legitimate black magic. These ordeals are passed by the disciple in the astral plane within a temple of black magic.

In the White Lodge, when the Gnostic asks the Masters in the astral plane for the four ordeals of earth, fire, water, and air, then these ordeals are set by the Masters one after the other (as described in our book The Perfect Matrimony or The Door Entering into initiation). These ordeals are always occurring with the interruption of many days between each one, and the next ordeal is given only if the student has been triumphant in the previous one.

Each triumph of the disciple is celebrated in the 'Children's Hall', with ineffable music and feasts. Each one of the four ordeals has its special celebration. The 'Children's Hall' is so named because the disciple is received by the Masters who have taken on the shape of children, in order to tell him: "Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven." (Matthew: 18: 3).

So, there is nothing regarding a letter R, nothing about 777, nothing about Jasper jewels, nothing about hours and signs, since all of these are just pure black magic from Atlantis.

In the White Lodge, the only thing, which is placed on the Gnostic disciple, is the small cape of a Chela (neophyte), which he has to ask for.

After having passed the ordeal of air, the black magician receives a jewel with two intertwined rings, which is what becomes the sign of his triumph.

The white magician receives a symbolic ring which represents the Ray to which he belongs to. The ring of the black magician reminds him that he was hung from two rings over an abyss. The masters of the black temple dress in white tunics. The veiled prophets wear black veils, the stole bearers wear gray colored stoles, the scribes wear blue, the astrologers wear blue and white, the mystics wear yellow and the doctors wear a reddish gray colored stole. The temple remains in obscurity.

The disciple of ninth black degree is admonished with the following words: "The living soul, who traverses this horrendous path in loneliness, without vacillations or shyness, will be illuminated by the glorious mysteries, after the purifications by earth, fire, water and air." Afterwards, the black disciple advances towards the guardians of death.

In the ordeal of fire, a guardian says to the black disciple the following: "If you wish to arrive next to the master, you must pass through this door. In order to reach this door, you must pass through this hail. In order to pass through this hail, you must walk over these beams of fire. So come if you search for the master." Then the disciple says, "Go ahead! Go ahead! Go ahead!" So, filled with courage, he traverses through the fire.

In the ordeal of water, a black guardian says: "If you want to see the master and to enter into the holy temple, you must reach that door and pass through it, and in order to pass that door, you must pass through the lake."

Everything here described between quotations refers to the ninth black degree of the fraternity from the School of Sodom. Everything is pure and legitimate black magic.

The disciples of the White Lodge, as we have already stated, only celebrate their festivity in the Children's Hall, after having become triumphant.

The four ordeals within the White Lodge are in order to examine the white disciple's morals. For instance, in the ordeal of fire the disciple is attacked by crowds of enemies who insult him. Instead of returning insults, the disciple throws love towards his enemies. This is how he triumphs in this ordeal, when with serenity, he passes through the fire without becoming burned.

As we see in this ordeal of fire, there is the need to kiss the executioner's whip in order to triumph. Yet, in the ordeal of fire for the black magician, the only requirement is to pass through the fire, since moral preparation does not have the least bit of importance for the black magician.

The ordeal of water for the Gnostic in the White Lodge is given with the only purpose of knowing what level has the disciple's altruism and philanthropy reached.

The White Lodge's ordeal of air is only given with the purpose of knowing the disciple's capacity for resistance against great adversities and for detachment from material things.

It is logical that a disciple who commits suicide because of a loss of fortune cannot pass through the ordeal of air. By simply not being capable of morally resisting a failure, it is clear that one does not pass the ordeal of air.

Whosoever succumbs to the grave inconveniences of life fails in the ordeal of earth.

There are many persons who have passed these ordeals within the very struggle of life, within the daily battle of obtaining their daily bread.

Sometimes in life there have been human beings who have traced a great plan for the benefit of humanity and they have accomplished it with exact fullness, in spite of all misfortunes, sufferings and tears. These people have passed the four ordeals in the body of flesh and bones.

Therefore, the four ordeals of earth, fire, water and air are presented simply for the moral examination of the disciple. All of our defects and moral faults are precisely the negative aspect of the four elements of Nature, and we have to convert ourselves into kings and queens of it.

In the White Lodge, the four ordeals are accompanied by a verbal test, in order to know what level of purification the disciple has reached.

All of these ordeals occur in the astral plane. The prepared disciple, that is to say, the disciple who has spiritual maturity, brings the memory of all of this to the physical plane, just as if he would have had a dream.

On the other hand, what only matters in the black lodge is to have the courage of a brutal beast in order to become triumphant in the ordeals.

The sixth monograph from the ninth black degree describes to us how their dreadful disciples, after having triumphantly passed their four ordeals, have the right to receive (they say) the sacred initiation.

Let us see the following paragraph from the third page of the sixth monograph of the ninth black degree: "Now then, in this way I knew that two intertwined rings must be my sign, therefore, two intertwined circles similar to two links of a chain are my sign, and also these will be your sign in this initiation. As soon as this was understood by me, they asked me to sign my name and to leave the digital mark of my thumb over a sheet of special paper, which was attached to a piece of wood, that also was attached to other pieces. Then after, they commanded me to go towards the door, to push a small sliding seal, and give my letter and number."

The whole of this seems to be like a scene in a police office, but never of a temple of white initiation. No one signs his personal name within any temple of white initiation, neither is anyone registered because in the white lodges and in the karmic records, the human being is depicted with the name of his Intimate and never with profane names.

Many of the black students lose their profane name when they enroll in their spiritual universities. Then, when they conquer their "Anagaric-hood", they are assigned with a capricious name as a substitution of their own profane name, as a reward for their success

While forming a chain, they exclaim in their Sanctum: 'E... I... E... I.....E..... I... '.

This is an action of thanksgiving for these left hand adepts.

The disciple's conductor wears a tunic and hood of a black color because he is an authentic black magician. Among the masters of the White Lodge, not one wears a black hood. The Master Zanon (white master), dresses in a black tunic and wears a distinguished mantle of the same color, but never a black hood. This is because the black hood is only for black magicians.

"Thus, having again reached the bottom of the temple, I am lead towards the center of the temple. Then, an official places a great cross over my head while I kneel, and three bellstrokes resound in some other part of the temple. From the east of the temple, a master with a purple tunic who carries a great Egyptian cross approaches me. He holds this cross over my head instead of the other cross, while other officials who are standing next to me say: Under the cross of immortality and eternal life, you are blessed."

Within the halls of the authentic white Gnostic Initiation, a master never wears a purple or red tunic, since these colors are only used by the hierarchies of the black lodge.

In the white Initiation the disciple throws upon his shoulders an enormous and heavy cross of wood. This signifies that the disciple has already started his own Via Crucis through the nine Arcades. The weight of the cross differs very much, as this weight depends upon the karma of each person. Sometimes the disciple cannot bear the weight of his cross, then the Cyrenean has to help him. The vowels E. U. grants the disciple the power of bearing his cross when it is very heavy. Thus, the cross over the shoulders is white magic. Yet, the cross over the head is black magic.

Christ did not bear his cross over his head, but over his shoulders. The cross symbolizes matter. Hence, to bear the cross over the head signifies to resolve oneself to live under matter, under the world. This is why the black magician says: "Under the cross of immortality and eternal life, you are blessed."

The White Magician says: "Over the cross I am." The cross over the head is carried by the Pontiffs on their miters. No White Magician carries the cross over his head, but over his shoulders, as was demonstrated by the Divine Redeemer. Thus, we, the Gnostics, are not under the cross, but, over the cross.

The Gnostic has to bite a certain figure in the first Initiation. Before entering into this first Initiation, he has already received the authentic lost word, which has never been written.

The verbal tests are very strict in order to receive the Initiation. The black magician does not care for morality.

Once the Chela (white neophyte) triumphantly passes the white Initiation, a celebration occurs.

In the black ceremony, the disciple receives from a black magician, who is dressed in yellow, a series of teachings that are utilized in order to become invisible and to make others invisible. We will talk about this in the next chapter "Nirvana".

As we have already stated, all of these teachings came from Atlantis. In Atlantis, the human beings were utilizing the sexual forces in order to inflict grave damage. This is how Orhuarpa (a black magician) was forming monsters with his mind, that later he physically materialized. He fed them blood to keep them alive and he was casting these monsters upon his defenseless victims whenever he wished to do so.

The Atlantean humanity was clairvoyant and they marvelously managed to handle the cosmic forces. A very important sanctuary existed in that epoch. This sanctuary was named the Sanctuary of Vulcan. The guardians of this sanctuary had Ariman (another black magician) and his legions under their control, so these black magicians could not freely work on our planet. The atoms of Ariman eventually damaged the clairvoyance of the human being. This is how our humanity remains enslaved by the illusion of this physical world.

Nevertheless, there was in Atlantis a great College of Initiates. When the black magicians were attempting damage against them, then the evil ones were killed by the Sword of Justice.

The Lords of Mercury gave the mind to the human being in order for him to think, and not for him to use it for destructive purposes, as did Orhuarpa.

When Orhuarpa saw that people were worshipping him as a God, he armed a powerful army and marched against 'Tollan', the city of the seven gates of massive gold, where the White Magicians from Atlantis reigned.

During the day, Orhuarpa was fighting dressed in steel, with shield, helmet, cask and sword. Yet, during the night, he was unleashing his beasts with his witchcraft. They were in the form of wolves and they were destroying his enemies. This is how he captured Tollan, the city with the seven gates of massive gold. He became emperor of Atlantis, thus establishing the cult of the tenebrous sun.

This is how events occurred. Then, the Master Mona reincarnated. He reunited an army of soldiers and marched against Orhuarpa.

Orhuarpa cast his ferocious beasts against the Master Mona, but the Master was dissolving them with his luminous powers.

Master Moria, with the edge of his sword, captured Tollan, the city with the seven gates of massive gold, and all of the soldiers of Orhuarpa fell under the sword of the forces of light.

When Orhuarpa saw that he had lost, he enclosed himself within a tower and died burning in it, because Master Mona's soldiers set fire to that tower.

Unfortunately, events did not end here. Orhuarpa immediately reincarnated again, and when he was old enough, he reunited his army of warriors and sorcerers and marched against Tollan, but he could not capture the city again. So, he established his own throne against the other throne.

Then, the Four Thrones (Deities) said to the White Emperor Noenra (Noah), "Leave from this land, and pass to the Gobi desert, where you will find dry land, because God will sink this land." Noah obeyed and departed with all his people towards the Gobi desert.

The people of Noenra were the primitive Semite tribes who were following the path of White Magic. Thus, Orhuarpa remained chief and lord of Atlantis.

Sometime after the departure of the people of Israel, certain dangerous igneous manifestations started to appear in Atlantis. This was because the use of the sexual forces, when utilized for black magic, made the fire of the dormant volcanoes enter into activity.

The sexual forces have an intimate relationship with all the forces of Nature, because the sexual forces reside not only in our sexual organs, but also in all of our cells and, moreover, within each atom of the Cosmos.

The sexual force is the cause of electricity. It is logical then that the dormant volcanoes would enter into activity, since the volcanoes were intimately related with the black magicians by means of the sexual energy.

During great earthquakes, Atlantis sank with all of its black magicians into the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean.

All of the native tribes from the continent of America are Atlantean remnants. These tribes preserved many practices of black magic, which were derived from the Atlanteans.

In America, there are some who make dolls with wax and then bury them with pins. This is how they empower their imagination and concentrate their minds on their victims.

There are others who utilize the sexual forces for destructive purposes. The whole of this originated in Atlantis.

The Arhuacos Indians, from the Sierra Nevada of Santa Marta (Colombia) burned a whole town named Dibuya, by utilizing the elementals of fire, which they call "Animes".

I met a humble old woman in the small town of Santa Cruz de Mora (State of Merida), who made marvels with the elementals of Nature. When she was young, she married an Indian. Her husband took her to his tribe into the jungle. She tells many strange things about this tribe. She says that during the day, the Indians abandon their homes and during the night all of them arrive with the shape of animals, yet, when they are within their huts, they take the human shape again.

A certain day her husband took leave from her and said that he was going to die in the jungle (since these Indians go into the jungle in order to die). He gave her an amulet and said: "I deliver this keepsake to you, so you can ask to it whatever you wish, when you are needy."

This is how the old woman made marvels in the town of Santa Cruz. She asked this amulet whatever she wished for. Money, wine, jewels, liquors, perfumes, etc., etc. were coming to her as if by magic.

People who were robbed did nothing more but consult her. At once she was asking the amulet for the robbed object. Then, the object was carried by invisible hands and arrived into her hands, and so everybody was recovering their lost things.

Unfortunately, these marvels ended for the old woman when she had the weakness of confessing this to a priest, who took this marvelous talisman away from her.

The performance of these marvels are nothing fantastical or rare, since they are simply made with the elementals of Nature. The book by Mr. Franz Hartman entitled The Elementals, widely refers to these things.

The whole of this knowledge comes from Atlantis.

The elementals serve for good as well as for evil. The Atlanteans utilized the elementals for evil.

CHAPTER 15

NIRVANA

From the Gobi desert, the Israelite tribes emigrated to the west in order to form the Aryan Root Race. This is represented in the Book of Exodus, in the story of the emigration of Israel, when they were coming out from the land of Egypt towards the Promised Land.

Enormous caravans of human beings, who were commanded by the Masters of Major Mysteries, came away from the drowning Atlantis towards the Gobi desert. Afterwards, they emigrated to the west in order to cross themselves with some western races, in order to form our present Aryan Root Race.

The captains of the Biblical Exodus were the same Masters of Major Mysteries. They were profoundly venerated by humanity, therefore no one dared to disobey their sacred commands.

Moses remained forty years in the wilderness, that is to say, the primeval Israelites remained forty years in the wilderness. They built the Ark of Alliance, they established the mysteries of Levi and they worshipped Jehovah.

The mysteries of the seven sanctuaries emigrated towards the west. Under the light of these sanctuaries is how the Magis' Persia, the Richis' India, Chaldea, Egypt, Hellenic Greece, etc., all flourished.

This occult wisdom illuminated Solon, Pythagoras, Heraclitus, Socrates, Plato, Aristotle, Buddha, etc.

The most powerful civilizations from the past flourished under the light of the sacred mysteries.

Nonetheless, the human being was developing the intellect and it withdrew him from the internal worlds. When the human being lost his clairvoyance, then he knew fear. Fear did not exist in the past, because the human being was contemplating the action of the Gods and he was seeing the unraveling of all things.

The human being removed himself from the Great Light, now he has to return into the Great Light.

The Buddhists tell us that when the human being is liberated from the wheel of birth and death, then he enters into the ineffable joy of Nirvana

We, the Gnostics, know that Christ is a Nirmanakaya, a Being who renounced Nirvana in order to come to save this humanity. The Book of the Dead says: "I am the Sacred crocodile Sebek. I am the flame with three wicks, and my wicks are immortal. I enter the region of Sekem, I enter into the region of the flames which have defeated my adversaries."

This region of Sekem, the region of the flames, is the ineffable joy of Nirvana.

A Dhyan Chohan is one who has already abandoned the four bodies of sin, which are the physical, astral, mental and causal bodies.

A Dhyan Chohan only acts with his Diamond Soul. He has already liberated himself from Maya (illusion), thus, he lives happily in Nirvana.

The sacred crocodile is the Intimate. The Intimate is the flame with three immortal wicks. These three wicks are the Intimate's Diamond Soul, his Igneous Mind and Atman, his own spiritual body.

Nirvana is a region of Nature where the ineffable happiness of the fire reigns. The Nirvanic plane has seven sub-planes. A resplendent hail exists in each one of these seven sub-planes of Nirvanic matter, where the Nirmanakayas study their mysteries. This is why they call their sub-planes 'halls' and not merely 'sub-planes' as the Theosophists do.

The Nirvanis say: We are in the first hall of Nirvana or in the second hail of Nirvana, or in the third, or in the fourth, or fifth, or sixth, or in the seventh hail of Nirvana.

To describe the ineffable joy of Nirvana is impossible. There, the music of the spheres reigns and the soul is enchanted within a state of bliss, which is impossible to describe with words.

The inhabitants of the superior hail of Nirvana use diamond tunics and they carry mantles of distinction over their heads, which fall to their feet.

We can visit Nirvana with our astral body. The yogis from India, while in the state of Samadhi, visit Nirvana with their mental body or causal body. However, to pretend to visit Nirvana with black magic procedures is the breaking point of madness.

The Gnostic knows how to enter into Nirvana by utilizing the powers of his Intimate. When the Gnostic wants to visit Nirvana he does the following:

First, he leaves his physical body and departs in his astral body.

Second, when he is already out of his physical body, then he prays to his Intimate as follows:

"Father of mine, take me to Nirvana." Then, the Intimate transports the soul of the Gnostic towards the ineffable joys of Nirvana.

The Gnostic procedure in order to depart in the astral body is very simple.

The Gnostic takes advantage of the natural state of transition between vigil and dream in order to leave his physical body. This is done with much naturalness as when one is walking out of his home. The individual simply pronounces the mantra "RUSTP", and in the moment when he is getting drowsy, he gets out of his bed, not with the mind, nor the imagination, but as if he is really doing it with his body of flesh and bones. Hence, the physical body remains within the bed. The mantra is pronounced many times like this:

RRRRRRUUUUUUSSSSSSSSTTTTTTTTTT.....

The Gnostics know very well that they must always save their sexual force, because the Kundalini awakens with the sexual force.

The mantra "RA" helps in the awakening of the Kundalini, but it is necessary to know how. This is ignored by the black magicians of the school of Sodom. These black magicians believe that by pronouncing "RA-MA" while standing on their feet every morning and while taking various inhalations of air, they will purify themselves. What they only demonstrate with this is their complete ignorance regarding the wisdom of the Egyptians.

We, the ancient Egyptians, pronounce the mantra "RA" while in the Egyptian position, which is as follows: Our knees are on the ground, the palms of our hands are on the ground and touching each other by the thumbs. Then, our head rests upon the back of our hands. In this position, one pronounces many times the mantra like this: RrrrrrAaaaaaa

As we have already stated (in the previous chapter), in the black ceremony, the ancient black magicians, while enveloped within a cloud, were physically invisible and were transporting themselves to wherever they wished.

Christ, the divine Rabbi of Galilee, taught us the secret in order to travel with the physical body within the astral plane. Let us see verses 24-32, of the fourteenth chapter of Matthew.

But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

But, straightway Jesus spake unto them saying, Be of good cheer; It is I; be not afraid

And Peter answered him and said, Lord if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord save me.

And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

This is the Gnostic secret in order to enter within the astral plane, with the body of flesh and bones.

Peter walked upon the waters because his physical body, by means of the force of faith, submerged itself within the astral plane. In the moment when he doubted, he went out of the astral plane, and he was close to sinking.

The forces of the astral plane were holding Peter when he was upon the waters. Therefore, the astral plane was the force, which was holding Christ when he was upon the waters.

When we, the Gnostics, want to go to the astral plane with the body of flesh and bones, then we utilize the clue, which the Master taught us.

We proceed in the following way: In the precise moment when we awake from our natural sleep, without giving time to any analysis, doubt or vacillation, and filled with a very intense faith, we get up from our bed, we leave our room, then we float within the atmosphere.

Only our faith is what holds us while performing this. Consequently, any analysis, doubt or vacillation damages the experiment.

We can also take advantage of the instant in which we are getting sleepy, or simply, in the instant in which the mind is in a profound repose, as a tranquil lake.

The physical body floats simply by means of faith. We abandon the force of gravity and the physical plane. So, we penetrate with our physical body into the astral plane, where the laws of levitation reign.

Our disciples also know how to walk upon the waters in the same way as our Master did. Therefore, we are authentic Christians.

The black magicians from the school of Sodom also utilize the procedure of the cloud in order to envelop themselves within it and become invisible. They do not forget about 'mimicry' with this, since if they are within a jungle, they have to make the cloud green, if they are within a room of white walls they have to make the cloud white. In this way they will become invisible.

We, the white magicians, utilize the power of our Intimate in order to become invisible, yet, this power is delivered to us only when we have deserved it.

The black magicians from the school of Sodom believe that with their black experiments they can penetrate into Nirvana, yet, they are mistaken. They penetrate into the astral plane, but not into Nirvana.

We, the Gnostics, can visit Nirvana even with our body of flesh and bones. Obviously, modern Theosophists will laugh at us because they know naught about these things. The unique thing that they have in their heads is an arsenal of theories. But in practicality, they are nothing else but eunuchs of understanding, morbid mystics, and fornicating sybarites.

I still remember a Theosophist who was a member of a black lodge. How terrified he flew away from a park in Cartagena (South America), when I told him that he was consciously working in the astral plane.

This is the breaking point of negativity from Theosophists. They horrify themselves simply with thinking in awakening the consciousness. They are only interested in having their heads filled with 'cockroaches' and in living their life asleep. Nevertheless, they say that some day they think they will enter Nirvana.

Foolish boasters of wisdom, know that only those who have already passed through the High Initiation, only those who have given their last drop of blood for this humanity will enter into Nirvana.

All men long for the High Initiation, yet, they can only reach the altar of the High Initiation with the virile member in the state of erection (explanation in next chapter).

Therefore, the Gnostic always lives heroically, always triumphant and always a rebel, like the heroes of Rabelais, who knew nothing of weakness.

The Gnostics yearn for Nirvana, but they know very well that they carry Nirvana within their sexual glands. Thus, they want to self-realize it within themselves, by means of courage.

CHAPTER 16

THE ELIXIR OF LONG LIFE

The Master Zanon acquired his Chaldean Initiation in very remote ages. As a result, he preserved his youthfulness for thousands of years. Megnour, who was Zanon's comrade, also lived through entire ages. These masters were invincible; death could not do anything against them. They were citizens of an already disappeared ancient nation (Chaldea). What was their secret? What was their power?

When arriving to the present chapter of this book, many uneducated surgeons of occult medicine will look at us with condemnation. With compassionate gestures they will mock the 'Elixir of Long Life' and will consider these teachings senseless, since they feel they are something impossible for them.

People have never comprehended, neither have they wanted to admit that the 'Elixir of Long Life', the 'Philosophical Stone' and the 'Clue of Perpetual Movement' are found within the male testicles and within the female uterus.

We have already said, and we will not tire of repeating that the Initiation is life itself, intensively lived, and that the human being's redemption exclusively lies in the sexual act.

When our book The Perfect Matrimony started to circulate, then, as we had expected, many critics emerged who qualified us as pornographic. This was because the book was written in a simple language which was at the reach of every one's comprehension, and also because the clue of sexual magic was given.

Nonetheless, we know that for the pure ones, everything is pure, yet, for the impure ones, everything is impure.

This is how the 'boasters of wisdom', the sick mystics, who through their morbid lucubration (which make them believe that they are super-transcended) came to qualify us as materialists.

Such individuals totally ignore that nothing can exist, not even God, without the help of matter.

Some old rascals, filled with decrepitude and consumed by the passionate coitus, and some sanctimonious, sexually unsatisfied old women threw the book away horrified, and qualified it as scandalous and pornographic. This is because humanity does not love good but only evil.

There were also some hallucinated mystics who pleaded in favor of an absurd type of chastity, which some religious sects preach, but do not practice. They ignore that Nature is in rebellion against that harmful abstinence, which causes nocturnal pollutions and the decalcification of the organism through the urethra. Sickness is the consequence.

Men were made for women and women for men, because Nature is wise in its designs. What man and woman have to learn is to enjoy themselves without hurting each other, and the answer for this is 'sexual magic'.

During the act of love, the Gnostic couple transmutes their semen into atomic energy by restraining the sexual act. This energy then rises upwards towards their head, through certain spermatic canals. This is how the human being is converted into a God.

This is not understood, cannot be understood, neither can it be explained by the pseudo-apostles of modern medicine, simply because they do not know the anatomy of the seven bodies of the human being.

They do not know about the occult chemistry or the ultra-biology of the interior organisms of the human being, which are the fundamental base of the hormonal life and of the endocrine glands.

The Hindus gave the name 'Ida and Pingala' to the spermatic canals through which the sexual energy internally rises towards the head. These are nervous cords, which are related with the Vagus and Sympathetic systems. These cords are entwined along the spinal column in the symbolic shape represented by the Caduceus of Mercury.

The human organism has its canals for the spilling of the semen. However, it also possesses seminal canals through which the semen, when transformed into energy, rises from the seminal glands upwards towards the head. This is because the mass (semen) is always transformed into energy, as was already proven by the wise and great Einstein. This process is what we call 'transmutation'.

These ascending spermatic canals were in use by human beings in very ancient epochs. The doctors of medicine among the Indians of the Sierra Nevada from Santa Marta (Colombia) are still utilizing these canals, ever since very ancient times. This is why they reach a very old age, maintaining a very lucid understanding, black hair, and intact dentures.

Among these Indians, we frequently see their children reach the octogenarian and centenarian ages, while in our present civilization; the human being is already in decrepitude by the age of seventy.

There exist thousands of evidences in order to make the civilized and scientific person to think upon this particular matter.

For example, an infant whose sexual energy has not yet been collected in his gonads has this energy latent in his entire organism. This is why if this infant is wounded, his body will heal more rapidly than the body of an adult, because the adult has been wasting his sexual forces since puberty. Moreover, the adult does not know how to handle his sexual energies as in the case of the infant.

Great is the error which the youth commit and also which their parents commit when they allow their children to squander the sexual force in pleasures and disgusting habits. They need to be taught that the vital principle resides within this great force.

It is true, as official science states, that sex is a biological function. Yet, the Decalogue teaches us with its sixth commandment that we must not squander the sexual force, because this force only accomplishes a constructive or creative function.

Therefore, the liberty, which the parents give to their children, in order for them to freely fulfill their biological functions, is not lacking of being a crime committed against the youth.

Sexual Magic has the following advantages:

1. Husband and wife continue loving each other for life with growing intensity, as if they were boyfriend and girlfriend.
2. It does not fill the spouses' lives with children.

3. Woman rejuvenates; she turns more beautiful and attractive every day, because she is daily charged with powerful forces, thanks to her husband.
4. Aged man rejuvenates and does not ever get old, because life is given to him through their creative forces. Thus, luck and happiness surround them everywhere.
5. The sense of clairvoyance is awakened in both, and so the veil of the invisible worlds is disclosed before their sight.
6. The sacred fire of the Holy Spirit illuminates them internally.
7. They unite themselves with their own Intimate (internal God). Thus, they convert themselves into king and queen of creation, with powers over the four elements of Nature, which are earth, water, air and fire.
8. They acquire the Elixir of Long Life, which resides in the Kundalini.
9. Death will be no more.

All of this is a fact, in spite of the doctors, who are 'consecrated' by the materialistic university.

Heaven is taken by assault, because heaven is for the courageous ones.

The Gnostics, protected with their character-shield of steel, grasp their sword of will and as terrific warriors they hurl themselves into battle, in order to take heaven by assault.

We, the Gnostics are human beings of great tempests, and within the explosion of thunder, we only understand the language of majesty.

When the warrior is close to the Initiation, then he can laugh at death with a guffaw that can shake all of the caverns of the earth. Then, he can have the right to the Elixir of Long Life, which is a potable gold, and a liquid, flexible and malleable glass. He asks the Lords of Karma for additional years of life in order to pay his debts.

This is how death and resurrection are achieved in his present incarnation, and how he is united with his Intimate. Then, when his own karma is paid, he convokes the Lords of Karma, in order to declare to them that he has resolved to remain in this world in order to work for humanity. Therefore, he remains with his physical body forever, till the end of all centuries.

The Masters Kout Humi, Mona, Saint Germain, etc., have physical bodies, which have existed for thousands of years. All of them have an indescribable age. What would a Master of Major Mysteries do if he had to constantly change his physical body?

The founder of the College of Initiates is a Maha-Guru, who will remain with us until the last Initiate has reached his rank.

The author of The Dayspring of Youth tells us that in Egypt there exist two Masters who have a really indescribable age. He states that one of them is mentioned within very ancient religious scriptures.

A Master can preserve his physical body for millions of years because he possesses the Elixir of Long Life, which resides in the Kundalini. The Master keeps engendering his own body daily, by means of his Kundalini. Thus, the cells of the body of a Master never wither because the fire of the Kundalini does not allow them to do so.

The Kundalini is then the Elixir of Long Life. This fire is the potable gold of ancient Alchemists. The Kundalini is the Tree of Life, which the book of Genesis refers to in the following verses:

And of the ground made Jehovah Elohim to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil. (Genesis: 2: 9)

The Tree of Life is the Kundalini and the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil is the semen. Both trees are from the garden of God.

And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

The land of Havilah is our own physical body, and the gold of this land is the solar atoms from our seminal system, that is to say, the semen's potable gold.

And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

This second river is the Cephalo-Rachis liquid, which is the other pole of our seminal system. With it we encompass the whole land of Ethiopia, that is to say, the whole of our head and throat, since we form the brain and throat with the Cephalo-Rachis liquid.

And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates. (Genesis: 2: 10-14)

The river which goes toward the east of Assyria and the river Euphrates are the two poles of the woman's seminal system. Therefore, the woman is towards the east of us, because she is the door of Paradise and this door is always towards the east.

Eden is sex itself. Thus, the Tree of Life is within Eden itself. The great Hierophant Eliphas Levi said that the Great Magical Arcanum is the Tree of Life, and that "at the foot of this Tree is the source of the four mysterious rivers of Eden." Yet, he fearfully says in a moment of consternation "Here I must pause, and I fear that already I have said too much."

This is the formidable, unutterable secret, which no Initiate has ever dared to reveal. This is the formidable secret of the "Great Arcanum".

The four rivers of Eden are the sexual forces of man and woman. The Tree of Life is in the midst of these four rivers of Eden.

If the human being, with all of his vices and passions, could have eaten from the Tree of Life in Eden, then Nero still would be alive, and the great tyrants would not have left a single moment of light for humanity. Caligula and the twelve Caesars from Rome would still be alive, they would still be upon their thrones. Fortunately, Jehovah knew how to keep the way of the Tree of Life.

So, he drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden a cherubim, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life. (Genesis: 3: 24)

Ignite your nine mystic lamps, oh Chela!

Listen to me, a Master abides in the bottom of your soul, he awaits in mystical lurking, waiting for the hour that He will be self-realized.

Listen to me beloved disciple, that Master is your Intimate and you are the soul of that Master

The Intimate becomes Master with the fruits of millinery experiences, through innumerable reincarnations.

Do not forget beloved disciple that you are a soul and that your physical body is your suit.

Listen to me beloved disciple: When your outfit is damaged, what do you do with it? You throw it away because you no longer need it, and you cannot deny this. Yet, if you wish to replace your outfit, then where do you go? You might answer me that you will go to the tailor's store, in order for the tailor to make another outfit for you.

Therefore, beloved disciple, I have already told you that you are a soul and that your body is your suit. Your suit of flesh was well made, in accordance to your own proportions. This suit of flesh was made by two laborers, that is to say, your father and your mother.

When your present suit of flesh is damaged, what will you do with it? You will throw it from you, and if you want to replace it, then, you have to search for a new pair of male and female laborers, in order for them to build for you another suit of flesh, well made and in accordance to your own proportions.

You might ask me how? Well, how was your present suit of flesh which you use made? In the same way, the new tailors will make for you your new suit. So then, this should not be strange to you.

When you undress yourself, taking off your fabric clothing, and you put on another garment, it is clear that you do not stop being Mr. or Ms X. X. Neither do you forget your business and your debts. So, whether wearing a suit of cotton or wearing another of wool, you will always pay your debts.

The same happens when you, as a soul, re-dress yourself with a new suit of flesh. You have to pay your old debts and you have to pay them because there is no other way. Since these debts are your evil actions.

Listen to me beloved reader. There are millions of suits of flesh, which you have taken off since the beginning of the world. If you do not remember, indeed other people do remember. A day will come in which you will remember your millions of deaths and births from the very constitution of the world.

Do not forget that Adam is not one man, neither is Eve one woman. Indeed, Adam is all of the millions of men of Lemuria, and Eve is all of the millions of women of Lemuria.

The souls that in this day and age you see wearing a suit of flesh and bones are the same souls of Lemuria, who in those times were wearing other suits of flesh and bones.

In the dawn of life, the Four Thrones emanated from their own life source millions of human bodies in an embryonic state. These human bodies were developed through the ages. Now they are our marvelous physical bodies which are made from the mud of the earth.

All of this is explained by the Bible. Yet, in order to study the Bible one needs to have studied occultism, because the Bible is a book of occultism, and cannot be read at face value, as when reading a newspaper.

Therefore, the Bible is the book of the Gnostics, and only when one becomes a Gnostic can one understand it.

The mystery of life and death.

Listen dear reader, each time that you wear a new suit of flesh, you are a little less of a villain, a little less of an assassin, a little less envious. This is because one truly learns from life's club blows, and the soul is really perfected through suffering. When the wild colt is tamed with a whip, then the day for the soul to be united with its Intimate arrives, and the soul is converted into an angel.

This is performed through being born and through dying millions of times, yet, it is also very true that we can achieve the union with the Intimate in just one very well spent life.

It is also very true that we can preserve our youth and not die by means of the Elixir of Long Life.

Megnour lived with his body of flesh and bones for seven times seven centuries. Zanon also remained young for millions of years.

The Count of Saint Germain presently lives in Tibet with the same body that he had during the XVII, XVIII and part of the XIX centuries in Europe.

We, the Gnostics laugh at death. We have the secret in order to mock the mute skull, and as we previously stated in the first chapter, we will make the inopportune guest (death) flee with the sword of Damocles.

We feel ourselves omnipotent and with a gesture of sovereign rebellion, we challenge science.

Foolish doctors, ignorant biologists, arrogant physicists, where is your wisdom?

Death sweeps away everyone, wealthy and poor, believers and unbelievers. All are defeated by death, except we, the Gnostics.

We, the Gnostics laugh at death, and we place it before our feet, because we are omnipotent.

Ignite your nine mystic lamps, oh! Lanu (disciple). Remember that each one of the nine Initiations of Lesser Mysteries has a musical note and an instrument, which produces it.

There are three conditions that are necessary in order to receive the Elixir of Long Life: Sexual magic, perfect sanctity, and to know how to consciously travel in the astral body.

Many people can start by traveling with their own physical body within the astral plane, because this is easier. Later on, they can become practical in the use and control of the astral body.

Some people are acquiring their sanctity little by little. The best way to put it into effect is to make an addition of all of our defects, then to terminate each one of them in a successive order, by dedicating two months to each defect.

Whosoever wants to terminate various defects in one time, is similar to the hunter who wants to hunt ten hares at the same time. He does not succeed in hunting any one of them.

Now, concerning sexual magic, there is the need to accustom the organism little by little to it, for there exist such brutal individuals who would not feel the slightest bit of pain if their own leg was cut during the sexual act. These are human beasts.

In the beginning, the couple can practice standing on their feet. The husband will massage his wife from the coccyx upwards towards her neck, with his index, middle fingers and his thumb, with the intention of awakening the Kundalini of his wife. She, likewise, will do the same thing to her husband, with the intention of awakening his Kundalini. The mind should be concentrated on the spinal medulla and not in the sexual organs.

The days for beginners of sexual magic will be Thursdays and Fridays at dawn. In the beginning, there should be no sexual connection. Later on (days, maybe weeks), the man will introduce his penis within the vagina and opportunely withdraw it, in order to avoid the seminal ejaculation.

Man and woman must mutually kiss and caress during this practice, pronouncing the mantra I. A. O., like this:IIIIIIII.....AAAAAAA.....OOOOOOOO, seven or more times, taking an inhalation of air for each letter.

When strong pain is felt in the coccyx, then it is a sign that the fire of Kundalini has awakened. This fire will rise along the canal of the spinal column, canon by canon (vertebra by vertebra), in accordance with our moral merits.

The awakening of the Kundalini is celebrated in the Children's Hall with a great celebration. The decisive factor in the progress, development and evolution of the Kundalini is ethics.

There is the need for the disciple to be skillful in the astral, so that he can assist the 'Praetor' of the Holy Gnostic Church at dawn on Fridays and Sundays. The other days, the disciple can receive wisdom within the Temple's hall of esoteric instruction.

At the gate of the Holy Gnostic Church, there are some guardians who allow the entrance of the disciples based on the condition that their conduct was upright during the day. These guardians have certain scales with which they weigh the good and evil deeds that the disciples performed during the day.

Also, there exists within the Gnostic Church a lens with which the colors of the disciple can be examined. When the disciple does not carry all of his complete colors, then he cannot bring the memories into his body. Many times, due to daily preoccupations, these colors remain within the physical body.

An extremely fine nervous tissue, which is totally unknown by the men of science, exists in our brain. This tissue is the instrument in order for us to bring back our 'internal memories'. Yet, when an injury is present in such a tissue, then the disciple cannot bring back his memories into his brain. Then, there is the need to ask the Masters Hermes, Hippocrates, or Paracelsus for the healing of such a center.

A letter must be written to the Temple of Alden, asking for the help of any of the three mentioned Masters. Such a letter must firstly be saturated with the smoke of frankincense.

Afterwards, the letter must be burned with fire, while pronouncing the mantras “OM TAT SAT OM”.

One must perform this action filled with faith, kneeling, praying to heaven and begging to be heard.

Certainly, the material part of the letter is burned, yet, the astral counterpart goes directly to the hands of the Master to which the letter is meant for.

Thus, the Master reads the astral counterpart of the letter, and then proceeds to heal the disciple. The Temple of Alden is the Temple of Science.

The internal bodies also get sick, and are also in need of the assistance of these doctors. These doctors are the Masters of Science, who are wealthy in wisdom. They heal the internal bodies of the Initiates, and also of anyone who asks for help.

One of the gravest inconveniences for practicing sexual magic is impotence. The excessive performance of the coitus brings, among other things, impotence. None of the remedies which were invented by allopathic doctors have given any cure for this. Yet, the daily practice of sexual magic heals impotence.

Now we are going to give a formula in order for those who suffer that terrible sickness (impotence) to be healed, with the condition that there has not been any injury to the virile member.

Very few are the human beings who have stopped to meditate upon the transcendental value of the plant called the Aloe.

I have seen the Aloe plant hung on a wall without pure air, without water, light, and soil.

Nonetheless, it remains filled with life, it multiplies its leaves and miraculously reproduces itself.

What does it live on? What does it take for nourishment?

This precisely is an inconvenience for the modern pseudo-botanists, since they only duplicate what others say. Very seldom does one of them have the insight to individually investigate within the marvellous laboratory of Nature.

The unique thing which the pharmacists can do with the Aloe is create “German liquor” and pectorals. These are the only things which they make with their famous Aloe gel. It is a great pectoral, yet, they do not even remotely know about the transcendental importance of the Aloe.

The Aloe nourishes itself with the ultrasensible rays of the sun, with the christonic substance of the sun. The Aloe gel is the crystallization of the astral light from the sun. Therefore, the gel is the semen of the Sun. This is why a great similitude exists between the Aloe gel and the human semen.

Consequently, the Aloe is a great panacea for the healing of impotence.

The procedure is as follows: Put into a casserole, pan or pot one white panela (hard cane sugar commonly found in Colombia) so it can be melted by the fire. This casserole must not contain water. Once the panda is liquefied, you must add the gel of a complete Aloe plant, then add ten grams of iron. Stir this very well with a handmill while on the fire. When everything is very well stirred, then take the casserole from the fire and bottle up this substance, adding a little bit of sodium benzoate, so that it cannot ferment. Label it, and take one spoonful of the remedy every hour. Impotence is cured with this marvelous formulae.

We will give another marvelous formula for the healing of impotence in our next book, which is in preparation, entitled Occult Medicine and Practical Magic.

Any woman who wants to awake her Kundalini must practice sexual magic with her husband.

She must also vocalize the mantra “I.A.O.” and refrain from the orgasm. Thus, the woman must withdraw herself from her husband before the approaching of the spilling of her feminine semen.

This is the way in which women can awake their Kundalini in a positive way.

The unique difference of the female with the male in relation to the Kundalini is that the two ganglionic canals called Ida and Pingala are inverted. The order of these canals in the male is: Ida at his right and Pingala at his left. Yet, in the female it is: Ida at her left and Pingala at her right. These two ganglionic canals resound with the note FA of Nature.

Listen to me beloved reader, when you feel that you are well prepared. then ask the Masters in the Holy Gnostic Church to submit you to the rigorous ordeals. If you wish special assistance, then invoke me, Samael Aun Weor. I will guide you through the nine gates, which will give you the right to rise to the Golgotha of the High Initiation, with the rough and heavy cross which is delivered to you in the first Initiation of Lesser Mysteries.

Remember good disciple that the cross weighs the weight of your own Karma. Do not allow yourself to fall, because the disciple who allows himself to fall has to suffer and fight very much in order to recuperate the loss.

Listen to me good disciple; the path is hard and filled with cobblestones and thorns. Poverty and infamy will put on their masks in order to hurt you in the middle of your journey. You will sweat blood and your feet will also bleed in the middle of your journey because of the cobblestones on the path.

The path of High Initiation is the path of Golgotha. It is a path of tears and anguish.

Light your candles in the silence of the night, and in that profound silence where you keep vigil, remember your Internal God and enter into His cavern. He awaits for you inside, deep inside of yourself, awaiting for the hour of His Self-realization.

Light your candle oh Chela! In the silence of the night, penetrate very deeply into the sacred city of the serpent. Here inside is where your God is waiting for you. So, light the fire in the night, oh Lanu. Close your eyes, withdraw your mind from any type of mundane preoccupations, become a little sleepy and try to talk with your Internal God in mystery, through interior meditation.

When through profound interior meditation you learn how to enter within your own cavern, then oh disciple, you will converse with your own Intimate.

Ignite your sacred fire in the profound night where you keep your vigil, thus, you will leave the dense obscurity. Your God wants to talk to you within the burning bush of Oreb.

Let your chant become sensitive to your seven churches, oh disciple, and do not forget that the Verb is what opens the seven doors of the seven churches of your organism. Chant, oh disciple, chant!

Ephesus corresponds to the note ‘DO’. Smyrna corresponds to the note ‘RE’. Pergamus corresponds to the note ‘MI’. Thyatira corresponds to the note ‘FA’. Sardis corresponds to the note ‘SOL’. Philadelphia corresponds to the note ‘LA’. Laodicea corresponds to the musical note ‘TI’.

I: Clairvoyance, middlebrow, note 'TI'

E: Occult ear, larynx, note 'SOL'

O: Intuition, heart, note 'FA'

U: Telepathy, solar plexus, note 'MI'

A: Memory of past lives, lungs, note 'LA'

Chanting these vowels for one hour daily awakens all of these occult powers.

The blood rises upwards towards the head when we vocalize the vowel 'I'. The blood goes into the throat with the vowel 'E'. With the 'O' it goes into the heart. The blood goes into the intestines with the vowel 'U' and into the lungs with the 'A'.

Within one of the rituals, which the master Huiracocha brought to Colombia, there is a mantric prayer, which is useful for sexual magic. This prayer must be pronounced in the moment when the husband and his priestess wife are practicing the connection of sexual magic. This prayer is as follows:

PRAYER

“Oh Hadit, winged serpent of light, be thou the Gnostic secret of my Being, the central point of my connection, my heart itself The sacred sphere and the blue of the sky are mine: O A O KAKOF NA KONSA (pronounce three times).”

When the Kundalini lights the atoms of language, which are located within the seminal system, then the human being acquires the power of speaking in all of the languages of the world. The great Illuminated Ones of the Atlantean chain spoke all of the languages of the world.

The Kundalini becomes a creator in the throat. The Magi can create a figure with his mind and materialize it by means of the creative verb of his Kundalini. This is how the angels create living things.

When the human being is already united with his Intimate upon reaching the High Initiation, then he utters the divine golden verb, which the Gods utter. This is how we elevate ourselves to the pleroma of eternal happiness, and we convert ourselves into creative Gods, by means of the verb.

Therefore, a book whose theme is about the verb (word), yet does not teach sexual magic is simply flippant.

To take the word out from the mysteries of sex is the breaking point of madness, since sex is the very base of the word. Thus, one cannot utter the divine golden verb (language) without the awakening of the Kundalini and it is only awakened by practicing sexual magic.

Whosoever is united with the Intimate becomes omnipotent and omniscient. He knows how to command and to obey, he never becomes arrogant because he has learned to be simple and humble within the cosmos.

The Master's sight penetrates within all of the spheres of Nature. As a Sovereign of the Infinite, he unleashes the tempests and calms the hurricanes. He makes the earth tremble, the lightning serves him as a scepter, and the fire as a carpet for his feet.

We will acquire the Elixir of Long Life by practicing sexual magic. Thus, we will become omnipotent. Yet, in order to achieve omnipotence, it is first necessary to learn how to obey the White Hierarchy.

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they might have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. (Revelation: 22: 13-14)

THE SONG OF SONGS

It is the delectable wine of love...
I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys,
I am the delectable perfume of passion.*

*I live within the cup of the crowned poets,
I am the chant of the Bacchantes
I am the love of the starry heavens,
I am the song of songs...*

*The honey of thy lips agitates my inner most parts, thus, I feel that I love Thee...
Thou art the mountain of myrrh,
and the hill of frankincense...
Thou art the fire of the Arcanum...
Thou art the erotic alp,
and the delectable smile
where love has become undressed...*

*Now, happy with the immortal wine, let us ignite a bonfire and let us chant the Walkirias
of flames and poetry.*

*Let the liquor come, let the light and music come...
Let the couples dance upon the soft carpet.
Let the Rose of Sharon sparkle within the cups, and let the fire devour the shadows...*

Let us dance happily in the arms of love.
Never mind the sayings.
Let us enjoy together in the nuptial chamber, within spikenards and mirrhs, and let us chant our triumphal hymn of light and poetry...*

CHAPTER 17

BEELZEBUB AND HIS REVOLUTION

Everything in life is a matter of customs. A fornicator is an individual who has intensely accustomed his genital organs to copulate. Yet, if the same individual changes his custom of copulation to the custom of no copulation, then, he transforms himself into a chaste person.

We have as an example the astonishing case of Mary Magdalene, who was a famous prostitute.

Mary Magdalene became the famous Saint Mary Magdalene, the repented prostitute. Mary Magdalene became the chaste disciple of Christ.

Paul of Tarsus, the furious persecutor of Gnostics, received the sacred Initiation after the event, which occurred to him on his way to Damascus. He left the custom of persecuting the Christians, and he adopted the Gnostic customs. Therefore, he became a Gnostic Christian prophet.

An evil one can become a saint, if he changes his customs of evil for the customs of a saint. After this preamble, let us enter into the interesting theme of our present chapter.

In our present Terrestrial Period, Beelzebub, the ancient prince of demons, reached a degree of perversity that is impossible to describe with words.

When any Magician wished to call Beelzebub in the astral plane, he had to arm himself with very terrific courage in order to confront the most monstrous beast, which the innumerable cycles of historic evolution have known.

The Magician was pronouncing the sinister mantras of tenebrous evocations, that are written as follows:

“Aaaaaannnn tiiiiiiiiii ?
 aaaaaaaa!
 raaa ra ra ra !”

Then, the name of Beelzebub was called three times.

A breeze of death was cooling the atmosphere of the evocator, and the prince of demons was answering with a terrifying roar, which seemed to emerge from all of the caverns of the earth.

Beelzebub was concurring to the call of such a courageous Magician. Beelzebub's steps were like the trot of an infernal colt, and his presence, a thousand times more terrible, a thousand times more horrible than death itself.

Woe unto the bold one who dared to call the prince of demons without being properly prepared! Woe unto such an intrepid one because he died under the claws of the horrible beast!

Yet, the very well disciplined Magician, firm as a warrior, was extending his right hand towards the prince of demons, and conjuring him with the following words:

“In the name of Jupiter, father of all gods, I conjure you, Te Vigos Cossilim!” Then, the monster was remaining still.

His presence was like a gigantic, longhaired gorilla. He was embracing his disciples or friends with his long tail while talking with them.

His eyes were like a bull, his nose like a horse, his mouth like a mule, his feet and hands were enormous and horrible, and his body, as we have said, was hairy like the body of a gorilla.

He was wearing upon his head a biretta, upon his shoulders was the black cape of the prince of demons, and a cord with seven knots was around his waist. All of these garments were indicating that he was a prince of demons, a black magician of the 13th black initiation.

When he was signing a pact with the black magicians, he was signing the following upon the document: “Bel tengo mental lapetra, y que a ella anduve sedra vao genizar ledes.”

Beelzebub knew how to momentarily abandon the astral plane, in order to enter into the physical plane. This is how he was becoming visible and tangible for his daring evocators in the physical plane.

He was making rich those who, were signing pacts with him. Consequently, the soul of that evocator was remaining a slave of Beelzebub. He was giving them money, yet the evocator had to resolve to follow Beelzebub in a determined moment, in a determined day, hour and minute.

This was because Beelzebub was demanding the evocator's own life and the soul of his most beloved son. Beelzebub himself was disincarnating the evocator, in order to take him and place him under his service.

I know of a rich landholder who has signed a pact with another demon, who is not Beelzebub. Every year a laborer mysteriously disappears from his farm.

One little girl watched her mother precisely in the very moment in which she was disappearing, snatched by the mysterious hand of someone who was not seen. Consequently, this child remained an orphan. The black magicians can take their victims into the astral plane, even with their bodies of flesh and bones, in order to place them under their service within that plane.

Many will say that the former statement is impossible, that the author of this book is getting peskier than a fly. Yet, I recommend to those people to study The Initiatic Novel of Occultism by Krumm Heller (Huiracocha), so they can learn about the history of the Holy Grail.

The Holy Grail was in the physical plane, yet now it is within the æstral plane. Also in the astral plane is the temple of the Holy Grail, which was physical in the past, and also part of the mountain of Monserrate in Cataluña (Spain). This is what is called jinn State.

This chalice is filled with the blood of the Redeemer of the world, which Joseph of Arimathæa collected when he was at the foot of the cross in Golgotha.

We read in Krumm Heller's book how Commander Montero entered with his physical body into the authentic Rosicrucian Temple of Chapultepec (Mexico). This temple is in a Jinn State, so, Commander Montero entered into this temple with his body in a Jinn state.

Dr. Rudolf Steiner, the great German doctor, said: “A physical body can enter into the internal worlds without losing its physical characteristics.”

Mario Roso de Luna made beautiful studies about the Jinn lands. Don Mario Roso de Luna died disappointed with the Theosophical society.

The Rosicross is one of seven Initiatic sanctuaries, which are located in the astral plane. Yet, all of the Rosicrucian schools, which are presently known in this physical world, are false ever since such schools fell into the hands of Javhe.

The natives of America knew about the Jinn states in depth. Therefore, when the Spanish conquistadors arrived; they hid their most sacred temples within the astral plane. As a result, the Mayan mysteries were saved from the Spaniard's profanation. The Sanctuary of Mayan Mysteries is one of the seven great occult sanctuaries, which now remain within the astral plane.

When a physical body is active within the astral plane, it remains subjected to the laws of that plane, without losing its physiological characteristics.

I know about a fellow who robbed two gold bars from the profound cave of the Pregoneros (State of Merida, Venezuela). When the man in question went out of this cave, he felt that these two gold bars were moving in his hands and simultaneously, a storm was unleashed. He then saw that his two gold bars had transformed into two horrible snakes. This man then threw them out of his hands and flew away in terror.

What also can occur is that a disincarnated person can momentarily abandon the astral plane and penetrate into the physical plane. Such an individual becomes invisible for those persons from the astral plane, yet, he remains tangible for the people of this physical world. In such a case, the disincarnated person remains momentarily subjected to the laws, which command the physical plane, without his astral body losing its own characteristics.

These cases are counted in thousands within the apparition archives of psychic societies. These are the apparitions of deceased persons, which the spiritists talk of. Nonetheless, they could never know how to explain them. Superficially, they say that these are materialization phenomena, and they fill them with millions of theories.

They ignore that the soul can enter into the distinct departments of the kingdom. What is necessary is to know how to do it, as the Magicians do.

Therefore, the Magician does not need spiritist mediums in order to perform these phenomena of practical magic.

When magic is explained as it really is, then what occurs is that it seems to make no sense to fanatical people. They prefer to follow their world of illusions.

I know the case of an evocator who called Beelzebub with the clavicle (clue) of Solomon, which is as follows:

"Agion tetra-gram vaicheon estimilia maton espares retragramaton orgoran irion. Erglion existion eryona omera brasin moim mesias soler, Emmanuel Sabaoth Adonai. I praise thee and I invoke thee."

When the evocator saw Beelzebub in the middle of the room, he became filled with infinite terror and did not dare make any pact with him for he became tongue-tied.

Beelzebub always had his cavern filled with weapons and seals in order to mark the astral bodies of his disciples.

I, Samael Aun Weor, was always observing Beelzebub in the astral plane. I tried to gain his affection because what kept calling my attention was the overwhelming fact that he was irradiating love towards his friends.

He was a very rare and unique case among his kind because I had never heard of a demon whose aura was irradiating a blue light, which is that of love.

Certainly, he was always hurling terrible threats upon me. Yet, I always defeated him with my mantras, and thus I was accompanying him into his caverns within the astral plane. I reached even to the point of taking part in his feasts, pretending to be a black magician, and even his comrade. This was in order to more closely study this personage.

My intentions in the long run were to perform the greatest task in the cosmos, which was to take Beelzebub out from the Black Lodge, and transform him into a disciple of the White Lodge.

My disciples were considering this task to be something truly impossible. Beelzebub did not stop threatening me, nevertheless, in spite of everything, I did not dismay.

Finally, there was a curious event, which did assure my intentions. One night, I, along with a chela, invoked Beelzebub in the astral plane. Once he concurred to our call, we invited him to dinner. He accepted our invitation, and we went into a restaurant of the astral plane. As we already explained, the astral body also eats elements, which are related to its organism. Thus, the astral world is almost similar to our own physical world.

So, I asked food for Beelzebub, while I contented myself to drink a glass of water. When Beelzebub sat at the table, he took the biretta off from his head and began to eat in a gentleman-like manner.

It was intriguing to see that type of gorilla eating at the table like a great lord. Some chelas who were in that place addressed me and told me that I was being disrespectful in bringing a demon into that place.

As it was expected, they were looking at him with disgust, and soon they began to vacate the place. Notwithstanding, I answered them: "This is also a man and he deserves to be respected" Then, Beelzebub took the floor and in a profoundly sad tone, he said: "Everybody despises me, the only one who does not despise me is my friend Samael Aun Weor."

This was the astral experience that did encourage me to continue with my longed for purpose, which was to take Beelzebub out from the Black Lodge and to make him a disciple of the White Fraternity.

Some people would see the fact that the astral body can eat and drink as something impossible, because their unsound mysticism is always telling them that the astral body is something vague, a vaporous fluid, an intangible and non-material body. Considering they are only theorists, it does not occur to them to verify it.

Let such ladies and gentlemen study Vivekananda's books, in order for them to be informed that the internal bodies (astral body, etc.) are also material.

This is why we, the Gnostics say that nothing can exist, not even God, without the help of matter.

So, the astral body is material, and it is a dense organism such as the physical body. The fact that matter in its last synthesis is reduced to energy does not deny its existence once in that state. If we cannot see it with our sense of sight it is because it belongs to the fourth dimension. Our physical eyes will not serve for seeing the astral plane until we make them suitable for this purpose, or until we place ourselves into the astral plane with our physical body. Thus, the astral organism is as dense as the physical organism, yet, it belongs to another department of the kingdom.

The astral body is much more sensitive than the physical body. The astral organism is like a duplicate of the physical organism. As the physical body has to be nourished with food related to its nature, so does the astral body.

The Occultist utilizes the astral body for his studies and for his great investigations, because such a body is advantageously arranged over the physical body. Time and distance do not exist for the astral body, and what one learns through it remains immediately recorded within the consciousness of the Being forever.

Therefore my dear reader, do not take the fact that I was having dinner with Beelzebub in the astral plane as something strange.

Many times I had asked for the attention of Beelzebub's Intimate, in order for Him to do something for his soul, but the answer of his Intimate (Spirit) was: "I cannot, he does not obey me. I have fought a lot, yet, it is impossible." Beelzebub, as all black magicians from the school of Sodom, considers that the Spirit is inferior and the soul is superior. This is because they say that the soul is more psychic.

So, Beelzebub, as well as the disciples from the school of Sodom, were convinced that the Guardian of the Threshold was their Real Being. Precisely, this is why Beelzebub did not listen to his Intimate.

Beelzebub ignored that he was in evil. He was furiously attacking the white magicians, and believing them to be perverse. He was feeling himself to be a Saint and good and considered the white magicians to be demons.

He was ignoring our Gnostic principle, which states: "One has a soul, and one is a Spirit"

The Testament of Learning says: "Before the false dawn came over this earth, those who survived the hurricane and the storm gave praise to the Innermost, and to them appeared the heralds of the dawn."

The Intimate or Innermost is our internal sun. Thus, the soul who removes itself from its Intimate falls into the abyss.

The Spirit is our Real Being. The soul who removes itself from its own Spirit is disintegrated. This is the second death.

As a result of the words that Beelzebub uttered in the middle of that dinner, I, filled with enthusiasm, performed another experiment. I invoked him anew within the astral plane. Once Beelzebub attended my called, I politely invited him to have some drinks with me. Beelzebub happily and joyfully accepted my invitation.

While Beelzebub and I were walking in the astral plane, I was changing Beelzebub's own vibration. Finally, I succeeded and I removed him out of the astral plane and took him into the most divine plane of consciousness of the cosmos.

This most divine plane of the cosmos is named "The Pass Not Ring" in the first volume of The Secret Doctrine by the Master Blavatsky.

If we consider the cosmos as a great tree with its roots in the Absolute, then these roots will be the "Pass Not Ring", because no one can pass that plane, not even the most great Gods of the cosmos can pass beyond that ring.

Beelzebub was really overwhelmed before the tremendous luminosity of that ineffable region.

Its beauty and happiness is indescribable. Yet, he felt terror because for four eternities Beelzebub was living within the darkness of the tenebrous caverns.

When seeing the light he was feeling fear, and so with a hoarse voice he uttered: "This is unceasingly terrifying I responded: "more terrifying is the darkness in which you live." Then, walking through this plane we passed in front of a house. "Can I enter?" he asked me, and I answered him affirmatively. Immediately we entered and stayed inside for a while.

Really, everything was new for Beelzebub. He was feeling discontent because he was accustomed to living among the veiled prophets, and the tremendous luminosity of that plane was horrifyingly bothering him.

After this interval of light, I took him again to the other extreme, into the terrible darkness of the Avitchi (Hell) of our earth, where one does not see anything but pieces of souls in the state of disintegration. There you find souls of prostitutes, who by means of too much copulation became totally separated from their Intimate. Now, while lying down upon their filthy beds, they are disintegrating themselves like candles, melting with the fire of their passion.

We found there souls of demons who were nothing else but pieces. "Here I feel a little bit better" said Beelzebub to me. I answered him: "You have to accustom yourself to the light." He then stated: "It is very hard to do so because I have been living within the darkness for a very long time."

When showing him the pieces of souls, I warned him: "Here is where you will end up if you continue with your evilness." Then after, I took him again into his astral plane.

Despite the fact that I was not content with the former ordeal, I did not dismay. I understood that he had the Guardian of the Threshold within his internal bodies. As a logical fact, in spite of the promising hopes that I was observing in Beelzebub, that Guardian (which is so respected by the black magicians), was totally enslaving him. Nevertheless, Beelzebub did not get furious against the light, the light only annoyed him.

He was suffering greatly in the astral plane because all the spiritualists were turning up their nose at him and he was very discouraged with his people.

There was always the same despot behind the altar commanding his temple. He was always around the same vices, and those vices had already made of him a gorilla, a filthy beast.

I, Samael Aun Weor, understood all of this. Therefore, I did not dismay, especially when he was trying to feel affection for me and was considering me his best friend.

Thus, I performed a third experiment. This one was really the decisive one. I took Beelzebub into the "Pass Not Ring" for a second time. While there, I invoked for him his best and very ancient friends from the epoch of Saturn.

These friends of his are now in this present time luminous Lords of the mind, Lords of the light. Filled with pain, they hugged Beelzebub. One of them said to him: "I never believed to reach the point of seeing you in this state." Then, Beelzebub answered: "You see how far I went."

In that plane, Beelzebub seemed to be something like a gorilla from the African jungle within an elegant hail of Paris.

Nevertheless, when Beelzebub recognized his most beloved friends, he was appalled within the depth of his soul and totally comprehended how he went astray.

This was Beelzebub, the simpatico and handsome man of Arcadia. If it was not for the taverns, he would not have known the horrifying black magician who misguided him.

Then, I asked permission to the Masters of that luminous plane to leave Beelzebub in that luminous region for some time. The Masters joyfully agreed with my petition, with the condition that I constantly visit him.

We then together made a chain of love around Beelzebub, inundating him with our love and filling him with our best atoms, saturating him with light and splendor.

I was constantly visiting Beelzebub. He was always sad, since he was the only gorilla within that plane of Gods. All of the Beings of that region were looking at him with curiosity and his ancient friends of the Saturnine period were advising and helping him.

So, Beelzebub was accustoming himself little by little to the light, and he was feeling remorse in the bottom of his soul for the lost time. He felt shame when in front of his best friends and he longed for personal improvement.

Therefore, we helped him by temporarily uniting him with his Internal God, with his own Intimate, and a supreme effort was made by his 'Glorian' in order to call his soul to the union with his Intimate.

When reaching this part of our book, it will be rare for the occultists to hear about the Glorian'.

In reality, the 'Glorian' is nothing else but the Ray from where the Intimate (Spirit) emanated.

Thus, the 'Glorian' is substance, yet, it is not Spirit, neither matter.

The 'Glorian' is the Great Breath that is profoundly unknowable to itself. It is a breath from the Absolute, one of the many breaths from the Great breath.

The 'Glorian' is the 'Atmic Thread' of the Hindus. It is the Absolute within us, our own individual ray, the whole of our 'Real Being' made in glory.

The soul aspires for the union with his Intimate, and the Intimate aspires for the union with his 'Glorian'.

The diocese of our 'Glorian' is the turk chair of our organism. This turk chair is formed by the cervical vertebrae of our spinal column. Here is where the 'Glorian' has its silver atoms. When Beelzebub became united with his 'Glorian', the white light of the 'Glorian' was shining with all of its splendor in that part of Beelzebub's astral organism.

This momentary fusion of Beelzebub with his Intimate took away from him that horrifying appearance of a gorilla. Dressed with the vestures of his Intimate, he assumed the shape of that simpatico, young man of Arcadia.

We must not forget that the atoms of the 'Glorian' are of silver and that the Holy Grail is of silver and not of gold as some Rosicrucians suppose. Hence, the Chalice, which the Initiates of the God Sirius carry over the hood of their forehead is of silver. Any Chela who visits the Transcended Church of the Star Sirius will convince himself of my affirmation.

A great interior revolution was taking place within Beelzebub. So, one night, the most quiet and the most silent night, I made some experiments of Theurgy, which were really definitive.

I projected for Beelzebub upon the cosmic scenario some scenes of the Akashic records. The primeval epochs from the Saturnine period were appearing, epochs in which Beelzebub still was a good and simple man, when he still did not have vices, when he still was not a friend of brothels or taverns.

All of those scenes were moving themselves in a successive order. Beelzebub was silently contemplating them. Then after, the taverns, the little parties, the social nights, and the brothels with their orgies appeared.

Beelzebub, filled with a terrible internal emotion, was contemplating those very ancient scenes and he was remembering his errors.

He was before the primeval causes, which had conduced him towards his present state. A true revolution of Beelzebub was in activity. Beelzebub was revolutionizing against hatred, against selfishness, against vices, against fornication, against anger, against crime, etc., etc.

Suddenly, something dreadful and horrifying emerged from within that scene. It was a being who was an abominable demon, dressed in a black tunic and who was wearing in his ears two rings. The eyes of such a demon were protruding outwardly and an atmosphere of profound darkness was enveloping him.

Beelzebub remained astonished when contemplating him, since he was his very ancient Master. He was that horrifying black magician, who with his marvelous clues, was always making him triumphant in the vice of gambling. He was that horrifying demon who leads him towards the first black initiation.

This demon was the one who enslaved Beelzebub to the Guardian of the Threshold in that very ancient tenebrous temple where Beelzebub passed the first ritual. It is the same ritual, which in this day and age the black magicians pass through.

This sinister personage approached Beelzebub smiling in order to greet him. Beelzebub, as when one is attracted by a hypnotic spell, wanted to approach him in order to return the greetings. Yet, he stopped, and a gesture of rebellion emerged from within the bottom of his soul. Heroically he exclaimed: "No I do not greet you, I do not want anything from you, since you are responsible for me being in this state!"

Then, the sinister personage, with a very hoarse voice, which seemed to emerge from within the bottom of the centuries and from within the tenebrous caverns, answered:

"Is this the payment which you give for my services?

Have you already forgotten my sacrifices?

Have you already forgotten the teachings that I gave you?

You are allowing yourself to be guided on the bad path."

Yet, filled with energy, Beelzebub answered: "I do not want to listen to you, since you are responsible for my being in this state. So, I believe I did pay you for the granted favors."

Then, I conjured this sinister personage in order for him to withdraw. Hence, the black magician withdrew with his profound darkness. He seemed to sink himself into the abyss.

This was an ordeal for Beelzebub, and he emerged successful in this ordeal. Beelzebub revolutionized himself against black magic. A gesture of rebellion was bursting within the bottom of his soul.

After having projected these Akashic Records in the atmosphere for the sake of Beelzebub, we, the Masters and my disciples performed chains of love together, in order to irradiate light to Beelzebub.

Afterwards, I projected in the form of pictures the fate, which was awaiting for him, if he would still follow the black path. Pictures were appearing of Beelzebub happy in the taverns and delivering himself to all the vices of the earth. Finally, the setting of the Cosmic Night was appearing, and all the seas overflowed over the earth. Everything was in ruins and ice. There, thrown away on a shore was a piece of the head and the chest and arms of the one who had been Beelzebub in the past.

Once the former picture concluded, I then told him: “Lo and Behold the doom which is awaiting for you, if you keep following the black path.”

Afterwards, I projected the pictures of the fate, which was awaiting for him, if he would follow the path of white magic. In these pictures Beelzebub was shown already united with his ‘Intimate’, dressed in the tunic of Mastery with its long cape of a Hierophant, and with his scepter of power. A luminous garden appeared, and Beelzebub was treading upon this garden as an omnipotent and heavenly God.

I told him: “This is the providence which awaits for you, if you follow the path of white magic. Thus, resolve yourself now! Do you follow white magic or do you continue on the black path?” Beelzebub’s firm answer was: “I stay with white magic.” Then, Beelzebub fell down on his knees weeping as when a child weeps. Raising his eyes towards heaven he closed his hands together over his chest, and among tears and sobs, he prayed to heaven.

He was a repented demon. His horns were shining upon his forehead as if they already wanted to vanish with the light.

The Major Brethren were hugging him with tears in their eyes. All of them were rejoicing amongst themselves while a triumphal and delectable march with its ineffable melodies played in the starry heavens of Urania.

“I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.” (Luke 15: 7).

Then, I kneeled and prostrated myself before the most powerful Hierarch of the cosmos, who is called by the Tibetans “the Mother of Mercy” or “the Melodious Voice Oeaoeh”. He is the only Begotten, the great universal verb of life, whose body is all of the sounds, which are played in the Infinite. His beauty is ineffable. He bears a crown with three points, and the Elohim carries his very long cape. They carry the long train of his cape.

So, I begged the only Begotten to have Beelzebub close to Him, in order for Him to adjust Beelzebub’s Kundalini.

Beelzebub’s Kundalini was flowing downwards, forming the tail (Kundartiguador) of the Demon. Now, the only Begotten’s duty was to raise Beelzebub’s Kundalini upwards, towards his head, in order to convert him into an Angel.

The Master (the only Begotten) accepted my supplication, and within that plane of diamantine light, he placed Beelzebub within a resplendent garden, and gave him a cosmic book for him to study. He instructed him in the path of light and filled him with atoms of wisdom.

Later on, I made Beelzebub ‘revive’ the whole of his life throughout all of the four great cosmic periods, and I showed him the beautiful fate, which was awaiting for him if he was going to follow the luminous path.

When Beelzebub saw himself already converted into a Hierarch of the future, he asked me:

“Would this be soon?” I answered him affirmatively.

Afterwards, when he finished reviving all of these scenes, he then arrived before the only Son (only Begotten), saying: “I come with my soul transformed.” The Master then continued helping him, and his Kundalini arose. Thus, the 'tail' (Kundartiguador) of the demon disappeared from him.

Nonetheless, the horns were still over his forehead, because these horns belong to the Guardian of the Threshold and he was closely fused with the Guardian of the Threshold. This internal beast was a terrible obstacle for his evolution. It was necessary to cast this beast out from him, in order to liberate him from this internal monster, which held him in bondage for innumerable ages.

That internal monster had taken possession of his will, of his thought, of his consciousness, of everything. Therefore, the necessity of expelling him out from his own Being, in order to perform a fast internal progress was peremptory.

This then was the moment when I took him into the astral plane, in order to submit him to the first Initiatic ordeal, through which anyone who wants to reach the 'Initiation' has to irremediably pass through. This is the ordeal of the Guardian of the Threshold.

In this ordeal, when we invoke this monster, he comes out from within ourselves and he threateningly thrusts himself against us.

Beelzebub had to invoke his own Guardian many times. Finally, a horrifying breeze blew everywhere and then, in a dreadful and threatening way, the specter of the Threshold appeared. That creature was a giant; about three meters in stature and his body had two meters of thickness. He had the appearance of a monstrous gorilla with a flat and round face, two horns and protruding eyes.

Beelzebub had fortified this monster throughout the ages. Now, Beelzebub did not have any other choice but to fight him. Therefore, Beelzebub courageously thrust himself over the monster, and subsequently defeated him.

This was the monster, which gave Beelzebub that horrifying appearance of gorilla. This was the beast of the Threshold. Hence, a 'dry' noise resounded within space, which is different than the metallic sound produced in similar cases with our present disciples. This is because Beelzebub is from another World Period.

Afterwards, Beelzebub was welcomed within the Children's Hall with a great festivity and delectable music, and so, he remained converted into a disciple of the Major Brethren.

The Masters gave him a symbolic cup of silver.

After Beelzebub passed through this first ordeal, I then took him again to the only Begotten, in order for the only Begotten to keep helping him.

The horns disappeared from the forehead of Beelzebub, because these horns belonged to his internal beast, to the Guardian of Threshold, which is called by the Rosicrucians from the school of Sodom "The Guardian of their Chamber", and also "The Guardian of their Sanctum".

The monstrous figure of the gorilla also disappeared from Beelzebub, because that figure was not his own, but the figure of the Guardian of the Threshold, which is called by the Rosicrucians from the school of Sodom "The Guardian of their Consciousness".

Beelzebub beautified himself. Nevertheless, he now had to accomplish that saying of the Master:

"Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's." (Matthew 22: 21).

Beelzebub had to return to the black magicians all the articles which he had from them: the biretta, the seven knotted cord and the cape of the prince of demons. Also, he had to erase his name from the book where it was written.

When reaching this part of our present chapter, we have to give some explanations about this matter, because many readers would think it strange that we talk about books within the astral world and it is because people are accustomed to think that the astral world is a vague, fluid, vaporous, intangible, immaterial, etc. world.

We, the Gnostics, are essentially 'realistic' and we have reached the conclusion that nothing can exist, not even God, without the help of matter, even though what is matter is something absolutely unknown to the so called materialistic schools.

Such schools are nothing else but a theoretical 'cage of parrots', because in reality these 'know- it-ails' of materialism truly do not know anything else but the most gross states of matter. For example, what do they know about occult chemistry, the anatomy and ultra-biology of the internal bodies of the human being?

Materialistic skepticism is the result of a cerebral dementia. This has already been confirmed by the psychiatric doctors of Paris, when they were analyzing the brain of an existentialist.

In reality, within each normal human being, there exists a true, natural mystic who is without any type of aberration. This is because the materialistic, as well as the spiritualistic theories are equally filled with aberrations and fantasies. Therefore, we, the Gnostics are not spiritualists, neither materialists, but we are 'realists'.

We deeply know about the infinite manifestations of matter and the Spirit, and we know that the fundamental base of the Being is not Spirit neither matter. The 'Glorian' is a substance, which gives its substance to itself, yet, it is not Spirit or matter.

Therefore, when we affirm that Beelzebub had to erase his name from the book of a temple, we speak with much authority as when we say that we have to erase a name from a physical-material book. If material objects exist in this physical plane, likewise material solid objects exist within the astral region, because the astral plane is as material as the physical plane. Moreover, we can visit the astral plane any time we want by penetrating within it with our physical body of flesh and bones, dressed and prepared as if we are going on the street for a walk.

Books of astral matter exist within every temple of black magic. The names of its affiliates are written in these books. Whenever a black magician withdraws from a temple of black magic, he must always erase his name from the book where it is written. Also, he has to return all of the articles to their owners: "Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's." (Matthew 22: 21).

So, after the ordeal of the Guardian of the Threshold, Beelzebub presented himself to his tenebrous temple in order to erase his name from the book where it was written.

It was an enormous, gigantic temple of black magic. The Great Hierarchy of the temple was behind the altar. When he saw Beelzebub, impatiently and irritably he exclaimed: "You finally remember to come? Since you are the one who directs this temple, why do you delay so much in coming?"

Then, Beelzebub answered with an energetic tone: "I do not belong to this temple anymore. I am now following the path of white magic." Afterwards, he took the biretta from his head and the cord from his waist and thrust them over the altar while saying: "There, I leave these things to you. I do not need them any more, since now I am of the White Lodge.” Then he added, “Give me the book so I can erase my name from it.” Then, the tenebrous priest answered in a despotic way: “Look for the book yourself; I will not give myself that duty.”

Thus, Beelzebub looked for the book, and then after, he erased his name and departed from the temple with a firm and triumphal step.

Subsequently, we directed ourselves to a certain tenebrous cavern, where he had to deliver the cape of the Prince of Demons.

When Beelzebub entered into the black cavern, he spoke the following: “I come to deliver this cape that does not belong to me anymore, because I am now a disciple of the White Lodge.” And so he thrust the cape towards them. Beelzebub departed from that cavern, while the black magicians from that cavern were insulting him.

Once out of that cavern, we directed ourselves to Beelzebub’s own cavern. Here, innumerable weapons and seals of black magic were shown. Beelzebub burnt all of these with the salamanders of fire.

This is how, my beloved reader, the former prince of demons “Beelzebub” was liberated from black magic.

Beelzebub continued abiding within the light of the “Pass Not Ring”, and the only Son (Begotten) kept teaching him.

Some days after, the ordeal of the Great Guardian of the Threshold of the World was presented to him. This is the second ordeal, which every disciple must pass through. Beelzebub courageously confronted the second Guardian. Another party was celebrated in another temple, and another symbolic cup of silver was delivered to him.

When the second ordeal is passed, then another ordeal comes in order to burn with fire the residue, which remains within the disciple.

Beelzebub entered within the hail of fire and he courageously sustained himself within the flames. This is the third ordeal and Beelzebub passed it very well. The fire burnt all of the larvae of his astral body, thus, he remained clean.

Later on, he passed through the four ordeals and proved that he was capable, even capable to kiss the whip of the executioner. These ordeals are the ordeal of Earth, Fire, Water and Air.

Beelzebub courageously passed through these four ordeals. Then, he received the cape of Chela (Disciple) of the White Lodge, and he dressed himself with a purple tunic.

Beelzebub became a disciple of the White Lodge and he totally sanctified himself.

For such a motive, the Great Brethren celebrated with a grand cosmic party. The Divine Rabbi of Galilee received him with open arms, and the Divine Rabbi congratulated me, Samael Ann Weor, because of my triumph.

This event remains written in the book of the twenty and four Elders, and the cosmos, the whole of it, has been shaken.

This is the greatest event of cosmic evolution because I have heard about fallen angels, yet, I have never heard of a repented demon.

So, Beelzebub, delivered himself to healing sick people and to taking them by night in their astral bodies into the temple of Alden for their healing. He delivered himself to goodness, to righteousness, and to justice. He changed his demonic customs for the customs of a saint, and hence he became a Saint.

Therefore, the main link, which was Beelzebub, was lost and panic sprouted within the black lodge.

The black magicians were unfolding ancient parchments, and were astonished when reading the innumerable degrees which Beelzebub had, and how now “in a manner of speaking” he had betrayed them. Some of them were commenting on this case by saying: “Now we have nobody else but ‘our chief Javhe’, the ‘Boss’ if he abandons us, then we are lost.”

Afterwards, when Beelzebub passed through the four ordeals of Earth, Fire Water and Air, he visited Javhe his former chief, and he said to him: “I come to say farewell to you, because now I am no longer dependent on your government, for now I am disciple of the White Lodge.”

Javhe then furiously answered: “Traitor! Miserable one! Renegade! You allowed yourself to be convinced by Samael Aun Weor. Yet, he does not have your degrees, neither mine as well. Be aware that you are walking on the bad path.”

Then, Beelzebub answered him in an energetic tone: “The one who is walking on the bad path is you. I follow Samael Aun Weor. I did not see the light, but since Samael has shown it to me, I will not leave this light anymore, and I follow Samael Aun Weor in the same way that all of his disciples follow him.”

Javhe then said to him: “Damned! Damned! Damned! My damnation will follow you eternally.” Yet, Beelzebub answered him with a smile: “Your damnation does not enter me because I am protected by the White Lodge.”

After Beelzebub had spoken, Javhe then turned himself against me, saying: “You are the one to whom I have to attack, because you are responsible for all of this.” Subsequently, he attacked me with all of his sinister occult power, yet, I easily conjured him, and I defeated him.

Beelzebub kept healing the sick. However, the instant in which he had to ask for a physical body, in order to climb up on the path of the “Initiation”, approached with necessity.

So, Beelzebub asked for a physical body. His petition was accepted, and he inscribed himself in the ninth Karmic office. This is how he entered into our human evolution.

The Initiate “Gargha Kuichin” generously offered his cooperation in order for Beelzebub to take physical body within his home, yet, this was completely impossible, due to health reasons of his wife. She could not endure the tremendous vibration of Beelzebub.

However, the Major Brethren had foreseen everything very well. The ‘Chela’ Beelzebub incarnated himself in France, in a feminine body. Now Beelzebub is a beautiful girl in France, who will overwhelm the world because of her sanctity, power and wisdom.

Her parents have a young and beautiful marriage in which only love and comprehension reigns, because both are “Initiates”. They are laborers, yet, they enjoy a simple and beautiful life.

Beelzebub was born with the body of a girl because the feminine body is indispensable for the development of feelings, tenderness and love. Now, Beelzebub, already with physical body, can rapidly pass the Nine Initiations of Lesser Mysteries, and finally he will unite himself with his Intimate. Thus, he will convert himself into a Master of Major Mysteries from the White Fraternity.

“From the great sinners, the great virtuous are born.”

THE SAPIENCE OF SIN

and the vertigo of the Absolute.*

*Oh defeated Magdala!
Thy withered lips due to too many kisses also know how to love....
Therefore, I love Thee, fallen woman,
I die for Thee,
no matter what they say.*

*I like dancing and thy love.
Alas! Woman do not leave me,
for I die for Thee.
Alas! Woman do not leave me,
for I only love Thee.*

*The forbidden fruit makes us gods.
Thy delectable words of love, and thy grave oaths,
are like the fire of the roses, and like those delectable moments which no one knows of....*

*The most great angels were always devils from great Bacchanahas;
they enjoyed the lips of love,
they sung the song of songs....*

*Red roses are better than white, because they have the sapience of sin and the vertigo of the Absolute, and because they have wept a lot,
a sweet Nazarene has forgiven them....*

*Temptation is the mother of sin, and the pain of sin is the sapience.
Christ loved she who had wept much,
and said to her: "woman, I forgive Thee, for Thou hast loved much..."*

*The most divine Gods are those who have been more human;
the most divine Gods*

are those who were Devils.

Chant! Oh Beelzebub, chant thy song, Chant! Oh Beelzebub, a chant of love.

*Woman, thou art a rose of passion,
Thou hast a thousand delectable names,
yet, thy true name is love....
I want to fasten laurels to thy temples,
I want to kiss thy lips with love...*

*I want to tell Thee rare things,
I want to tell Thee intimate things,
I want to tell Thee everything, within the perfumed room of mahogany.
I want to tell Thee everything in starry nights.
Thou art the star of Dawn,
Thou art the light of Aubade....*

THE MILLENNIUM

When the main link from the Black Lodge was broken, then, the revolution of Beelzebub extended itself over the whole face of the Earth. Concurrently, the Millennium began exactly in the year 1950.

The foundations of the world were being shaken and other black magicians followed the example of Beelzebub.

Astaroth, an inseparable friend of Beelzebub, and Holy Mary, the comrade of Mariela the great black magician, also followed the example of Beelzebub.

Thus, the Revolution of Beelzebub is marching on. Everywhere the oppressed are rising against the oppressors and everywhere are wars and rumors of wars. What is already agonizingly old is holding onto life, while what is new wants to be born and live.

The Revolution of Beelzebub is in march. The age of Aquarius is reigning and the storm of exclusivity has been unleashed with all of its fury. Parties are struggling against other parties, religions against religions, nations thrust themselves to war and each hand is risen against other hands. Everything, which is obsolete, everything which is old fights to survive, while the new wants to impose itself.

It is the struggle of two epochs: one which is dying and the other which is being born. We have entered into the Millennium. The human evolution has failed. Almost all of the human beings who presently live upon the face of the Earth have already received the mark of the beast upon their foreheads. They are demons.

The billions of souls who are presently incarnated are demon souls, perverse souls. Only a handful of souls were saved.

The astral plane was filled with trillions of demons who were fighting terribly in order to win the great war, in order to establish their worldly government. This plan is inscribed within the "Protocols of Zion."

Javhe and his black lodge were already at the point of total triumph upon the Earth, everything was marching in accordance with their plans.

The tempest was in its peak. The age of Aquarius was approaching and there was not even a ray of hope within the darkness of hatred.

The Second World War had just passed and millions of disincarnated souls within the different theaters of war were still in our astral environment, thirsty for blood.

This is when the Venerable White Lodge delivered into my hands, "the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain" in order for the first verse of the twentieth chapter of the Apocalypse (Revelation) to be accomplished, which states:

"And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand" (Revelation 20: 1).

I received commands from the Lords of Karma in order to lock Javhe and all of the black magicians within the abyss.

This task was certainly overwhelming for me, yet I felt omnipotent because after submitting me to the tremendous ordeals of the Initiation, the Venerable Masters delivered to me the sword of justice and a white horse. Thus, the greatest honor granted to a human being, which is to "judge" and to initiate the age of Aquarius, was given to me.

A band was placed on my thigh which states in symbolic letters: “King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.” This was done in order to fulfill the sixteenth verse from the nineteenth chapter, which states:

“And he hat on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.” (Revelation 19: 16).

I carry this band on my thigh in order to represent that the power of the human being is within the sex. Consequently, this is why the mission of teaching the tremendous secrets of sex for the first time to humanity was granted to me.

This is why the Innermost, the Intimate, or the Real Being of the one who writes this book carries that band on his thigh. This is the way in which my particular mission is symbolized.

When the night in which I had to obey the command of seizing Javhe arrived, I marched with all of my disciples in a rigorous military formation. We began hailing Javhe, which is how we surrounded him and seized him by surprise. He was convinced that we were going to entertain him, therefore, he did not escape from our hands.

Afterwards, we locked him within the Avitchi of the black moon. Seven atomic doors of iron usher towards that plane of consciousness. The sword with which Michael defeated Lusbel and all of the tenebrous legions of ancient cosmic periods remains hanging on the great external door. The black magicians become horrified when they see that sword.

Javhe has a very grave Karma, since he was the secret perpetrator of the crucifixion of Christ, and he is also directly responsible for the failure of human evolution on the Earth. He has to irremediably pay these old debts, because no one can mock the law with impunity.

The Lords of Karma delivered to me a heavy cross covered with spikes in order to crucifix Javhe on it, with his head downwards and his feet upwards. Since he crucified the Christ, now Karma has entered into action.

This was in order to fulfill the second and third verses from the twentieth chapter of the Apocalypse (Revelation), which state:

“And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent (Javhe), which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.”

“And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.” (Revelation 20: 2, 3).

“A thousand years” signifies various thousands of years. In other words, Javhe and his people will remain within the abyss during the whole luminous cycle of Aquarius. Yet, in the cycle of Capricorn, the last opportunity for their repentance on our Earth will be granted to them.

The words “Dragon”, “Demon” and “Satan” are individual and generic words, because these words symbolize Javhe and the billions of demon souls which I, Samael Aun Weor, am locking into the abyss.

When locating all the evil of the world, I was aware that the evil within Asia had its principal focus in China. All of the evil in the western world had its principal focus in Rome. I remembered that when one wants to kill a snake, one must aim for the snake’s head, thus, I started capturing and taking into the abyss all of the black Hierarchs from other cosmic periods, along with their trillions of demons.

I saw Lusbel with his red tunic and red turban. He was carrying a very ancient parchment rolled up in his tail.

I saw Ariman, the creator of gross materialism. Ariman wears a red tunic and red cap.

I saw Lusifuge Rofocale, creator of money.

I saw Orhuarpa, the founder of the mysteries of the tenebrous sun in Atlantis.

I saw Bael, the contrary pole of the luminous angel Adonai. The King Bael wears a crown. He was teaching his disciples from a great book, within a cavern from the desert.

I saw the soldiers of Javhe, who assassinated the Christ. I disguised myself as an elder black magician in order to convince Lusbel that his boss Javhe was calling him with all of his legions.

Thus, I danced before them and, little by little, I lead them into the abyss.

This is how Lucifer and his legions, Ariman and his legions, Lucifuge and his legions, Orhuarpa and his legions, Bael and his legions, Baal Pegor and his legions, were brought down.

I performed marvels before these chiefs of legions: I danced, sung, played kettle drums, etc. To that end, I performed everything which was at my reach in order to clean the atmosphere of the world. I utilized all of my very ancient knowledge in order to lock up all of those billions of demons who already had the world within their claws.

I disguised myself in thousands of ways in order to take these black magicians into the abyss.

All of these black magicians with their people were presenting me with great combats within the astral light, yet, I defeated them while mounted on a white horse and with the sword of justice in my mouth.

This is how verses 15 and 19 from the nineteenth chapter of the Apocalypse were accomplished, which state:

“And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God” (Revelation 19: 15).

“And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.” (Revelation: 19: 19).

The Real Being or Innermost of the one who writes this book performed all of these marvels and He performed them well.

The one who writes this book is only the humble and rough personality of the Master Samael Aun Weor. This Master is my Real Being, that is to say, my Intimate, my Innermost, my ‘Monad’.

I cleaned China, and I also cleaned the Western World. The black magicians from China and from the Western World were as numerous as the sand of the sea.

All of the black magicians from China were depending upon the orders of the Black Lodge called the Black Dragon.

All of the black magicians from the Western World were depending upon a certain black magician from Rome.

Hence, millions of souls from the fatalities of the Second World War fell into the abyss. The Lords of Karma established a tribunal within the Avitchi. Power was granted to me in order to judge these black magicians and also to execute their punishment. This is how verse 11 from the nineteenth chapter of the Apocalypse was fulfilled. This verse states:

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.” (Revelation 19: 11).

We could fill enormous volumes if we would tell in detail all of the scenes and all of the things, which I performed in order to clean the Earth from all evilness. If we would not have done all of this it would have been impossible to initiate the age of Aquarius.

I, Samael Aim Weor, am the Avatar of Aquarius, I am the Initiator of the New Age. I am faithfully accomplishing my mission. I profoundly thank the Masters for the honor, which they granted to me.

The Masters placed over my head many brilliant crowns and my vesture seemed to be dipped in blood while in mid battle.

This is how verses 12 and 13 of the nineteenth chapter of the Apocalypse were accomplished. They state:

“His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself”

“And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood; and his name is called The Word of God.” (Revelation 19: 12-13).

The name of my Real Being is hidden within the name “Word of God” because the Bible is highly symbolic.

God is represented with the monosyllable ‘Aim’ or ‘Aum’. Word or Verb is within ‘Weor’, which is pronounced Veor, so the W is the V sound. This W together with the remaining three letters (e-r-o) of Verb and Word form ‘Weor’. Thus, we have the name Aim Weor (Aum Weor, Aum Word, God Word) hidden within the phrase “Word of God”.

My name was purposely hidden within the phrase “Word of God” because I have accomplished this mission with the lost word, with the Verb of God, with the signed sentence that is within the luminous and spermatic ‘Fiat’ of the first instant, with the hiss of the ‘Fohat’.

This is how after all of this the astral plane remained clean of black magicians.

The lost word of the black lodge, “Mathrem”, which appears within the Monograph of ninth degree from the school of Sodom, protected them throughout millions of years within the veil of obscurity. Yet now in the Millennium, it will not protect them anymore.

The Gods judged the Great Whore” (Humanity) with the number 6. Thus, they considered her unworthy. The sentence from the Gods was: To the abyss! To the abyss! To the abyss!

The astral plane remained clean as millions of human souls fell into the abyss. Yet, billions of demons remained within the physical plane with bodies of flesh and bones. This is when the Gods had to judge the Great Whore (Humanity) in order to cast her into the abyss.

The Third World War is already inevitable. People will die by the millions like the sand from the sea. This has to happen in order for verses 17 and 18 from the nineteenth chapter of the Apocalypse to be fulfilled. These verses state:

“And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God.”

“That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bound, both small and great.” (Revelation 19: 17-18).

Human beings will die by the millions, like the sand of the sea. The colossus from the north will pay its Karma. There will be war between the east and the west for the good of this humanity, thus said Jehovah of hosts. The demonic souls from the dead of the Third World War will sink into the abyss.

From the year 1950 henceforth, the souls who will receive physical bodies will be only those who will have the chance to be properly prepared to live in the age of “Aquarius”. Eventually, our planet will become almost barren, yet millions of inhabitants from other planets will come in order to illuminate the age of Aquarius.

We spoke previously about ‘UFOs’ in our first edition of the book The Perfect Matrimony. We explained in that book that they are flying ships, and that the instructors of Aquarius will come in them.

The demon souls of the human beings from our Earth are establishing themselves within the Avitchi (abyss) of the black moon. They have the same customs, which they had when they were here. Thus, they have formed the same environment, such as they had on our Earth.

The billions of demon souls obey the Hierarchs from the black lodge.

The fortune telling tables, the famous magical figures of Phurbu over the squared turtle, the plates and tables for sacrifices, the circles of “Chinsreg” are seen everywhere in this new black habitat.

All of those black magicians have their Kundartiguador awakened (Kundalini awakened in the negative way). Therefore, they incessantly copulate in order to practice their black sexual magic, with the goal of strengthening their Kundalini in the negative way.

We previously stated in this book that there are two types of sexual magic. One is a sexual magic that creates life and the other which creates death. The first one is white magic and the second is black magic.

At first, these black magicians made thousands of experiments in order to escape from the Avitchi, yet, all of their experiments failed.

They believed in the beginning that the Avitchi was a cave or something of the sort. Now they are finally realizing that the Avitchi is a plane from Nature, which is similar to the physical environment of the Earth. This is because they made millions of experiments, they consulted their books, yet they did not have any success for all of their experiments failed.

They will remain there until the age of Capricorn, then afterwards, the last opportunity will be granted to them to repent of their evilness.

The fire transforms everything, because everything came out from the fire and everything returns into the fire.

The redemption of the human being is in the fire. Fohat transforms everything, which is, everything which has been and everything which will be.

We have defeated death, thus, we are immortal. The sword of Damocles threateningly rises against the mute skull. The world is within the fire of Alchemy, hence, all refuse is falling into the abyss.

I have finished this book in the middle of the tempest. The cannons are roaring, the Earth trembles, the terrible rumble of the thunder is heard, and within the frightful blowing of the hurricane, majestic voices and terrible words are heard.

The Earth is in flames and the Fohat is incessantly hissing. Thus, within the terrible hissing of the Fohat, the sentence of the Gods of Fire is heard:

To the abyss!

To the abyss!

To the abyss!
